

BALLOT

JUSTICE IN ACTION COMMITTEE

JUNE 21, 2023

- Total Membership: 9 (Nine (9) members: One non-voting members from Chapel Hill under the age of 18 appointed by the Chapel Hill Youth Council; seven (7) members who live or work within the Chapel Hill or Carrboro planning jurisdiction, which would include the Town's limits, extraterritorial planning jurisdictions, and joint planning areas; two (2) members from outside of the Chapel Hill or Carrboro planning jurisdictions)
- Current Membership: 3 (2 Female, 1 Male; 3 Caucasian; [1] 18-24, [1] 35-54, [1] over 55)
- Current Vacancies: 6 (4 Chapel Hill or Carrboro Planning Jurisdiction, 2 Outside Chapel Hill or Carrboro Planning Jurisdiction)
- Number of Applicants: 16

Chapel Hill or Carrboro Planning Jurisdiction

*Please vote for up to four (4) applicants.

- |                                |                        |
|--------------------------------|------------------------|
| _____ Scott Badesch            | _____ Maria Montenegro |
| _____ Shiala Baldwin           | _____ Joyce Powell     |
| _____ Ty Chapman               | _____ Pamela Ryan      |
| _____ Yamicia Connor           | _____ Sarah Smith      |
| _____ Henry Gerber             | _____ Tracey Traywick  |
| _____ Jesus A Gonzalez-ventura | _____ Jaimee Watts     |
| _____ Cecelia E Greenebarr     |                        |

Outside of Chapel Hill or Carrboro JPA
Please vote for up to two (2) applicants.

- _____ Danielle Anderson
- _____ Roberta Romano
- _____ Tyshunn Stelle

**JIAC request that Council allows us to keep the remaining three "Chapel Hill or Carrboro planning jurisdiction" seats vacant. This strategic action is part of our commitment to promoting equitable engagement and encouraging participation from diverse individuals in various advisory boards. By keeping these seats open, we aim to create opportunities for individuals who align with our goals and bring diverse perspectives to the decision-making process. This approach will support our ongoing efforts to foster a more inclusive and representative community.*