Non-Chapel Hill Board Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Over fifty years of professional experience as a writer, actor and director in theatre and film industry. Served on drama and theatre panels for the London arts council. Served on the Dance panel of Greater London arts. Director of the Shaw Theatre in London. Directed of three international festivals. Former member of the Orange County Art Commission. Wrote and performed in plays locally. Currently a performer, and screenwriter. Latest release out this year is "Gilpin" a film about the actor to first play Emperor Jones on Broadway, About the perform at the Oslo Impro festival with my company Paul and Ian's One Man show,

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Throughout my career as an Arts practitioner I have a vast amount of experience of writing grants and budget proposals. I am very active in the approach to finding new performance spaces, both formal and new/unusual venues. A major feature of my career in the Arts is as an advocate for the under-served communities. I am not afraid to take on established and reactionary forces who want to keep the Arts safe and bourgeois.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Non-Chapel Hill Board Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a homeowner who lives in the heart of Chapel Hill I am well aware of the issues that the Town faces daily: housing, business development, traffic, public safety, and the relationship between the Town and UNC. I come with many years of public service experience in Winston-Salem and Atlanta. Through that I understand that the work of these commissions and committees requires members who understand that the consideration of a diverse group of people's points of view and consensus building are more important than merely being the loudest voice in the room. It's rare that an idea or solution is a perfect fit for the problem to be solved. More often, the convened body must find a best-fit solution, or set of solutions, that takes into consideration various constraints - feasibility, cost, timing, and so forth.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I am an engineer with undergraduate and graduate school degrees. In addition to the public service experience mentioned above I was a member of the board of directors of a high-rise condominium in Atlanta and then served as that board's president for 10 years. During that time, the board successfully completed several of the largest projects undertaken in the building's history, including the replacement of the building's mechanical systems (HVAC, plumbing) as well as several green initiatives (renovation of windows and doors with energy efficient replacements, conversion of lighting in public spaces from incandescent to LED fixtures, implementation of a community recycling program, and installation of a green roof. I have a strong interest in urban planning, watershed management, architecture, public transportation and traffic management, sustainable building, adaptive reuse, sustainable energy and reduction in greenhouse gases, and green/LEED construction and renovation.

Question applies to Community Design Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in design field, architecture, landscape design, horticulture, city planning, green design, place making or related fields? If yes, please explain.

Please see previous response.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I have many years of design experience, including adaptive design for persons with disabilities. I have served as a member of an advisory committee to MARTA (Metro Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority) for the design of new trains and buses that better accommodate passengers with varying levels of physical abilities.

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Non-Chapel Hill Board Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a recent resident to Chapel Hill, I seek to increase my involvement in the community. This is consistent with my previous forty-year residency in the Champaign-Urbana Illinois region. I have experience in real estate, privately-owned business, health care (Dr. of Optometry), transportation, and education. I consider myself a lifelong learner and am always interested in diverse points of view and problem solving.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I moved from a community similar to Chapel Hill in terms of a recognized university (University of Illinois) and a diverse population base. I have served on a number of Boards, including the Champaign-Urbana Mass Transit District, Champaign-Urbana Symphony, and the Champaign County Mental Health Board. I practiced for thirty-three years as an Optometrist in a large multi-specialty practice in Urbana, Illinois, served as an administrator/counselor in Greenville, South Carolina public schools, and am currently still a property owner in Illinois. All of these experiences have put me in a position to deal with various people and viewpoints and to work collaboratively in a group setting.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I feel that I have skills and experiences that lend themselves to membership on the Planning Commission. Until recently, I owned 300 moderately priced rental units in Champaign, Illinois and personally managed all facets of my business. With regard to transportation, I served on the Board of the Champaign-Urbana Mass Transit District, with a 55 million dollar budget, 250 employees, and a monthly ridership of over one million passengers. Within these business and public spheres, I had involvement with city government, schools, not-for-profit organizations, and legal entities. I feel this breadth of expertise would serve me well in the work of the Planning Commission.

Little or No Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I bring the experience of not only a recent graduate of UNC Chapel Hill in fields relevant to the board, but also a person who has lived, studied, worked, and lived in Chapel Hill for the past five years as a previous outsider. I also have indigenous background, and bring those unique perspectives to my work and life. My perspective also deepens when considering my connections within the community, as a younger, but also, management professional within the community. I have connections to the university, but also the town of Chapel Hill, which I bring with me to enhance my understanding of how the Town can better itself.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I am extremely qualified for the field of planning, with education concerning planning, community interactions, environmental interactions, community design, site planning, historical planning, ect.. This education informs my passion and has developed my skill sets immensely to better assist those within the planning fields, making me a highly qualified individual. I am also of indigenous background, which further motivates me to understand how a community can better itself and better help the individuals within said community, as my eventual goal is to assist in the survival of my people. I also volunteer within the Indigenous Environmental Network, as well as within CURS to deepen my experience and understanding. Currently, I am also in communication with the Sami Arctic Environmental Unit, which hopes to advise and lead the Sami goals to Arctic nations and the UN.

Question applies to Community Design Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in design field, architecture, landscape design, horticulture, city planning, green design, place making or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I have significant experience within the field of city planning, horticulture, and place making fields as these are all topics I have studied extensively within my education. These topics were central in my studies within the Department of City and Regional Planning, as well as my coursework for Global Environmental Interactions, where I studied sustainable growth and design extensively. I also wish to eventually attend UNC for City and Regional Design, where I would obtain a graduate level understanding of the topics and grow to have a career based on such things.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I have extensive experience within the city planning, design, environment, housing, transportation, and related fields due to the specialization of my education within the Department of City and Regional Planning at UNC. These fields also hold special interest for me as I intend to attend graduate level studies in the near future for city planning. My personal life also involves these fields, as I volunteer for CURS, Indigenous Environmental Network, and am in communication within the Sami Arctic Environmental Unit.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Little or No Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I am interested in sustainable and planned growth in Chapel Hill. I believe that we can accommodate much of the demand for housing and economic development if we are smart about growth. My family and I are also active patrons of the library. We believe it is a valuable resource and I think the library has done a wonderful job serving the community. I would like the opportunity bring library services to underserved areas of our community.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I am a real estate investor. I have a lot of interest in learning about how the area can accommodate the influx of people moving to the area.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I am a real estate investor. I have interest in how the greater Triangle area is growing. I do not have any special training in city planning, but I do evaluate assets for potential investments.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker.
