6. 306 N Boundary Street [\[19-0007\]](#)

Commission members Epting and Burns were recused from this agenda item.

Erik Melham, architect, presented additional information requested from the February 12, 2019 meeting, including detailed information about trees and landscaping; clarification on original, c.1991, and proposed landscape elements; and proposed treatment of the rock wall beneath the south entry porch.

Members of the public spoke, including Wood Burns, Catharine Burns, Linda Brown, William Camp, Nell Joslin, and Jill Blackburn. Comments were made regarding the historical significance of the property and the Coker gardens, the location and size of the proposed garage, proposed lighting schemes, compatibility with the Historic District and neighborhood overall, and concerns over the amount of time to review changes made after the February 12, 2019 meeting.

A motion was made by Kyser, seconded by Schwartz, to close the public hearing.

A motion was made by Schwartz, seconded by Kyser, to continue the item to the April 9, 2019 meeting for further Commission discussion. The motion carried by a unanimous vote.

7. 410 & 412 North Street [\[19-0089\]](#)

Ricky May, applicant, presented a proposal for the Commission to approve demolition of the two cottages in order to construct a new single family house. The Commission inquired about the historical significance of the existing landscape, the economic feasibility of preserving the cottages, and the historical significance of the two cottages that would be removed from the site through relocation or demolition.

Members of the public spoke, including Pat Lowry and Arthur Thin. Comments were made regarding the number of rentals in the neighborhood and the feasibility of restoring the two cottages.

A motion was made by Smith, seconded by Burns, to approve the Certificate of Appropriateness for the demolition of the two cottages as conditioned to delay demolition for 365 days in accordance with state statute and that the associated stone wall is not demolished. The motion carried by a unanimous vote.

Without objection, the Commission decided to continue the public hearing for the application for the construction of a new single family residence to the April 9, 2019 meeting.

8. 723 Gimghoul Road
