**JIAC request that Council allows us to keep the remaining three "Chapel Hill or Carrboro planning jurisdiction" seats vacant. This strategic action is part of our commitment to promoting equitable engagement and encouraging participation from diverse individuals in various advisory boards. By keeping these seats open, we aim to create opportunities for individuals who align with our goals and bring diverse perspectives to the decision-making process. This approach will support our ongoing efforts to foster a more inclusive and representative community.*

The Council appointed Ty Chapman, Danielle Anderson, and Tyshunn Steele to the Justice in Action Committee.
