Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I have been a Chapel Hill resident most of my life. After graduation from UNC law School and bar passage I applied for and have served on the Orange County Adult Care Home Community Advisory Committee, the Chapel Hill Board of Adjustment and was the Democratic Party State Executive Committee. The reason why I have selected this boards is my experience at UNC law where I studied state and local government under Judith Wegner and my experiences with town boards and commissions. These experiences helped me realize not just how much of an impact local government has on our day to day lives, but also how much we have an impact upon our local government here in Chapel Hill. As such it is important to have someone with a background of both academic experience and consensus building. I have developed these skills working as both an attorney in the Orange County area, with the Orange County Register of Deeds and as a paid field organizer working with dozens of volunteers on a recent major political campaign. As such, I look forward to continuing to be involved with my community.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

As a longtime Chapel Hill resident, and now homeowner, I have a vested interest in the continued sustainable growth of our community. As a Chapel Hill business owner, with my office located in downtown Chapel Hill on Rosemary Street, I have an understandable preoccupation with how the town confronts issues of development and zoning. As a real estate broker, I have an enthusiasm for learning and practicing the ins-and-outs of the adjustment process. Finally, as a lawyer, I have a passion for legal process and ensuring the fair application of the law.
