What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I am a real estate attorney with 17 years experience. I have extensive experience with land use, planning and zoning matters. Prior to returning to Chapel Hill three years ago, I was on the Board of Zoning Appeals in Harrisonburg, Virginia, for a number of years. I am also a parent of a child in the CHCCS system (Estes Hills Elementary). My family first moved to Chapel Hill/Carrboro in 1999 and lived here for several years before moving away for work, so have experienced planning and zoning matters outside of Chapel Hill. We returned to Chapel Hill three years ago because we missed it.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

As stated above, I am a real estate attorney. My area of focus is transactional matters, but am also familiar with land use, planning and zoning, in particular in Chapel Hill. I have served on municipal boards (in other areas) in the past and am familiar with the types of processes. I have observed Chapel Hill Board of Adjustments meetings.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.
