Amy T. Harvey
Deputy Town Clerk

A RESOLUTION RECOMMENDING FRED BATTLE'S NAME FOR PLACEMENT ON THE PEACE AND JUSTICE PLAZA MARKER (2022-04-06/R-2)

WHEREAS, the Council of the Town of Chapel Hill approved naming the space in front of the old Post Office the Peace and Justice Plaza and the placement of a stone marker at the site that would display the names of residents who had given much of their lives to the causes of peace and justice in our community; and

WHEREAS, the Council of the Town of Chapel Hill also approved adding the names to the marker of deceased social activists Joe and Lucy Straley, Yonni Chapman, Rebecca Clark, Rev. Charles M. Jones, Daniel H. Pollitt, Mildred Ringwalt, Charlotte Adams, Joe Herzenberg, Hubert Robinson, James R. Brittain, Henry "Hank" Anderson III, Gloria Williams, Bill Thorpe, Dean E. Smith, Mildred Council, Harold Foster, Robert Seymour, and Edith Wiggins; and

WHEREAS, Fred Battle participated in Chapel Hill's Civil Rights Movement, served as director of the Hargraves Community Center, helped to improve the way of life for area residents by serving on several Town and County advisory boards, and was president of the local chapter of the NAACP; and

WHEREAS, the Council Naming Committee recommends honoring Fred Battle for his lifelong contribution to social justice in Chapel Hill, and that his name be engraved on the marker along with the above names.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the Town of Chapel Hill that the Town Manager is authorized to proceed with engraving the name of Fred Battle on the Peace and Justice Plaza marker.

This the 6th day of April, 2022.
