What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I currently own and manage several buildings on W Franklin St, and formerly owned the coffee shop Perennial before it closed due to Covid-19. I bring the perspective of a small downtown business owner and real estate owner.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

As a graduate of UNC-CH I have been able to witness the tremendous changes our downtown has undergone over the last ten years. After receiving an MPH in NYC, and working in public health, I returned to Chapel Hill to raise my family. After returning, I begun to build a career in owning and managing property which has engendered an interest in downtown development. I believe I understand the ways in which property owners need to adapt as technological developments and population changes necessitate flexibility in leases as well as an emphasis on aesthetics and natural environments. I also bring the struggles of a downtown business owner, and realize how difficult it is to thrive in an in flux downtown environment. I hope to bring these ideas and experiences to the downtown partnership in order to shape policy on a macro level, and help to create a vibrant downtown community.

You may upload a supporting document (e.g., CV or resume). Please be advised that any information submitted becomes a public record and may be searchable online.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.
