What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Over fifty years of professional experience as a writer, actor and director in theatre and film industry. Served on drama and theatre panels for the London arts council. Served on the Dance panel of Greater London arts. Director of the Shaw Theatre in London. Directed of three international festivals. Former member of the Orange County Art Commission. Wrote and performed in plays locally. Currently a performer, and screenwriter. Latest release out this year is "Gilpin" a film about the actor to first play Emperor Jones on Broadway, About the perform at the Oslo Impro festival with my company Paul and Ian's One Man show,

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Throughout my career as an Arts practitioner I have a vast amount of experience of writing grants and budget proposals. I am very active in the approach to finding new performance spaces, both formal and new/unusual venues. A major feature of my career in the Arts is as an advocate for the under-served communities. I am not afraid to take on established and reactionary forces who want to keep the Arts safe and bourgeois.

Non-Chapel Hill Board Experience

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I have served on staff and the governing board of a cultural arts organization in Austin, Texas on and off for about 20 years. I have served as an advisor to the Texas Historical Commission. I have reviewed grant applications for arts awards at the city, county, and national level. I have a background in arts administration and in performance.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have years of experience with community programming. I have board governance experience. I am a performer myself. I also have an academic background in folklore and ethnomusicology and have been involved with historic community preservation work, most recently in Austin, Texas.

Question applies to Historic District Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in history, architecture, archaeology, or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I have special interest, experience and education in history, preservation, and community program. My academic background in folklore has given me extensive experience in not only determining the historical significance of a building or community, but in understanding the public messaging that should surround a successful public announcement of these kinds of decisions.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

THE COLLEGE BOARD (2012-current)

Senior Director, Higher Education Academic Relations (2014-current)

Director, Higher Education Academic Relations (2012-2014)

The College Board is a national nonprofit organization with 1000+ employees. At the College Board, I serve as a liaison between the member-based organization and its member campuses. Specifically, I address the needs of academic audiences at postsecondary institutions. In this work, I represent the Advanced Placement (AP) program and serve to provide information to faculty and Academic Affairs representatives with the information they need about learning outcomes and assessment practices so that they can make informed decisions on credit and placement policies for students with passing scores on their AP exams. My work is national in scope; I serve all postsecondary institutions across the country.

- Ensured operations within a budget of ~$750,000
- Present field intelligence and higher education trends to executive leadership and advisory Boards in order to shape strategic directions
- Developed metrics for measuring impact of work
- Ensured cross-unit collaboration on all ongoing projects
- Collaborated on custom research projects at the request of member academic institutions
- Represented the organization nationally at academic, civic, and professional events
- Refined organizational messaging for outreach aimed at higher education audiences
- Recruited, hired, and trained new staff
- Met or surpassed all individual performance goals for every year of employment; ranked in the top 15% of employees within the organization

COUNCIL FOR ADULT AND EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING (2009-2012)

Director of Academic Programs (2011-2012)

Senior Consultant (2009-2011)

CAEL is a national nonprofit agency with 50+ employees. I was initially hired as a consultant, where I was available for consultative services to postsecondary campuses across the country. My area of expertise was in implementing new or improving existing programs for non-traditional learners; my input was requested on issues related to academic outcomes, program offerings, support services, and student affairs. I then moved into a leadership role for the launch of CAEL's online e-portfolio learning project, LearningCounts, where I served as user architect for the software, wrote the corresponding credit-bearing course that accompanied the student experience, and recruited and trained faculty to serve as portfolio reviewers.

- Sole author on grants that contributed over $2.2 million to the organization and $800,000 for external clients
- Academic consulting services on lifelong learning and portfolio development
- Piloted program: LearningCounts
 - Engineered the operating process and IT architecture for the online service
 - Wrote curriculum and attained national credit recommendations for use by regionally accredited institutions
 - Recruited, trained, and oversaw 500+ adjunct faculty
 - Developed operating procedures and academic policies for the start-up
 - Developed online training materials for faculty
 - Developed and designed marketing plans tiered for different audiences
 - Projected sales goals, and forecasted operational budget needs
 - Oversaw daily operations and managed staff during the pilot launch

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY TEXAS (2002-2008)

Dean, College of Adult Education, and, Associate Professor (2005-2008)

Center Director, and Assistant Professor (2002-2005)

Concordia University Texas is one ten colleges and universities within the Concordia University System, which is affiliated with the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod. It is a private, liberal arts institutions with 2,500+ students, offering undergraduate, graduate, and degree completion programs. I was initially hired to serve as chief administrator of the Austin Center for the College of Adult Education; this center (one of five across the state) offered accelerated, undergraduate degrees (A.A. and B.A.) to non-traditional students. In 2005, I was appointed Dean of the entire College, which led to oversight of all undergraduate operations across the state of Texas, as well as administrative oversight of all graduate programs then offered in all satellite locations. During this period, we added an additional location, which opened in 2008. I also oversaw the overhaul of the undergraduate curriculum in Healthcare Administration; the success of this overhaul laid the groundwork for the university to launch a full-scale nursing program. During my time at Concordia University, I advanced in faculty rank, leaving as Associate Professor (tenure offerings at the university were sunset before my arrival on campus). I separated from the university in 2008 through a contract buy-out due to personal reasons as explained in my cover letter.

- Operated on 15% of generated revenue, with final fiscal year bringing in over $500,000 beyond revenue expectations
- Increased enrollment state-wide by 20%, and within the Austin Center by 100%
- Spearheaded the successful acquisition of a $500,000 facility expansion resulting in improved program capacity and future growth potential
 - Developed business plan for expansion
 - Responsible for selecting final site of new location
 - Oversaw build-out of classroom and office space
 - Successfully opened location with minimal impact on student progress (zero canceled classes)
- Oversaw staff of 15 administrators and over 300 adjunct and full-time faculty
- Sole responsibility for all off-campus facilities across the state
- Increased effectiveness of advertising buys through collecting and using data
- Developed administrative and academic systems that enmeshed the College more effectively into daily operations of the university, thereby reducing duplicative processes
- Faculty representative for student Latin Honors society, Alpha Chi

TEXAS FOLKLIFE

Folklife Specialist (1998-1999)

Texas Folklife is a statewide, nonprofit, cultural arts agency charged with preserving and presenting the diverse cultures and living heritage of Texas. I was hired to oversee three particular grant-funded programs, two of which required specialization in curriculum development. My time at Texas Folklife spanned about 1 ½ years of my dissertation fieldwork and writing; I left the organization only to be able to concentrate on writing and completing my degree. I have remained active with the organization in a number of ways, and currently sit on its Board of Directors.

- Sole responsibility for delivery and oversight of three key programs: Folk Arts in Education; Powwow in the Schools; and, Apprenticeships in the Folk Arts
- Delivery of other programs, as needed, including Community Residencies
- Lead author on over $500,000 of grants awarded from federal, state and city agencies, as well as private foundations.
- Oversaw one full-time staff member and one VISTA volunteer

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I am a recent new resident of North Carolina and Chapel Hill when I started my new position as the Managing Director of PlayMakers Repertory Company in June 2016. I was previously active on the Cultural Council for the town of Franklin, Massachusetts. I believe that civic involvement and advocacy are critical to a free and engaged community, and I would be honored to be selected.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Back in New Orleans, I was involved with music (classical and jazz mostly, but also rock and other genres) and the literary scene. (I produced a literary radio show and live music shows which put me in close contact with the whole scene.) I also have great interest in the fine arts. I was raised with a key appreciation for the arts, so I am very invested in the practice and promotion of the arts. I have also served on the commission for the past 16 months.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

By trade, I am an audio engineer and producer. For enjoyment, I am an amateur budding artist. I can write well and have music experience and knowledge of many genres. I come to this commission from a position of appreciation, and knowledge of media and inner workings of arts organizations. I am also a person with high ethical standards.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

We are moving to Chapel Hill from Morganton, another small, North Carolina town. I am a mother of 5, and I have served on various community-based boards and organizations throughout the years. I donate my time, voice and resources to serve our community. I am a team player and will do whatever needs to be done to advance the teams' goals.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I served as general-counsel to a large healthcare organization for a number of years. My job was to find solutions to problems and inspire people to onboard in an enthusiastic way. I bring that skill-set (and mindset) with me to whatever job or role I assume.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Hello. I am passionate about public art and am excited about the opportunity to be involved in my community. By trade I am a creative director/graphic designer and have also done some art welding, mosaic work, mixed media and dabbled in other art mediums.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have a Master of Public Administration, and really believe that government directly makes a difference in the type of community we live in. Specifically, the people within our government and the policies and practices they adopt. I worked within local government early in my career and have also consulted with various municipalities over the years on creative print and interactive projects.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I grew up in Bern, Switzerland where my parents and my grandfather trained me to critically evaluate and appreciate the fine arts and to understand trends in quality. For many years, my mother owned an art gallery, which is where I learned to have a discerning eye. This skill has proven to be so helpful as I have visited museums and attended museum activities as noted elsewhere in the application.

MARION ROBBY

Marion has been involved in the religious, cultural and civic fabric of the Triangle since she arrived here in 1992. As a volunteer at Duke University's Medical Center's Emergency Room, Marion initiated a program for patient family advocacy that continues today. For many years, she served as a board member of the Cancer Patient Support Program at Duke, on the Board of Trustees of the historic Carolina Theatre in downtown Durham and the Chamber Orchestra of the Triangle. She is active in the North Carolina Museum of Art, having co-chaired its Humber Society and is a founding member of the Museum's Friends of the Judaica Art Gallery. She is also a member of the International Council of the Israel Museum in Jerusalem. Marion has been a board member of the Freeman Center of Jewish Life at Duke University, the Durham-Chapel Hill Federation, the Chapel Hill Kehillah the Jewish Community Foundation and co-chaired the Durham-Chapel Hill Federation 2008-9 Annual Campaign. . In 2006 Marion and her husband, Stanley were the recipients of the Sarah and Mutt Evans Leadership Award. Marion is currently active in Rotary and on the Advisory Board for UNC's Center of Jewish Studies.

Marion was born in Bern, Switzerland, as the eldest of five children. She graduated from the University of Geneva's School of Social Work where she obtained her MSW. There, she married a Swiss obstetrician-gynecologist, and together shortly thereafter moved from Zurich to New York City. Marion worked as a social worker at the Bronx Municipal Hospital Center of the Albert Einstein College of Medicine in an interdisciplinary teaching program for first year medical students. While in New York, Marion chaired the school board for Temple Israel Center in White Plains and she served for many years as Vice President and as a member of its board of trustees. Following the death of her husband, she married Stanley Robby, who is Professor and earlier the Vice-Chairman of the Department of Pathology and Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the Duke University Medical Center. He is the Past President of the College of American Pathologists.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I plan to weigh in on art concerns from various perspectives: young adult, Hispanic, low-income, business owner.

Question applies to multiple boards

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I am twenty-three years old and own my own art company which has given me a lot of great connections in the art community, especially being an artist myself (poet). It's imperative that Chapel Hill become as well known in the art world as Durham is and as Raleigh is becoming. I'm excited to bring new ideas and perspectives to the commission and see how we can improve the things we do well, and completely reinvent the things we don't.

Ethics Statement

Question applies to multiple boards

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I love Chapel Hill. I lived there for 15 years, worked and got my masters and doctorate; moved to Austin Texas in 2006, and I am currently in the middle of a move back to Chapel Hill. I am a teaching professor in the school of library and information science at UNC, and my specialization is cultural heritage organizations, community building for those types of institutions, and how to organize information (typically non-text information) so that it's useful for the people who are searching for it. I have a second masters degree in art history (from UVA), and have worked in some world-class museums. Finally, I am an artist myself, currently working with fabric and information to create unique interpretations of environmental data. I would love to be on the arts commission, and think that my knowledge and expertise in cultural heritage and community building would add a unique perspective to the group. I know that it looks like I'm a newcomer to Chapel Hill, but I have deep ties in the community, and want to get involved! I have served on the board for the last year and a half, and would like to continue for a full term.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I'm unsure what skills the commission needs, but I'm good with computers, I have experience with community building, I am interested in event planning and development, I can write grants, and am a hard worker.

Interests & Experiences

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I study Urban Design and City Planning at UNC. I assess problems spatially: associating freedom of movement with opportunity, vibrant public realm with social capital, and community livability with 'the good life'. I'm deeply curious about how to foster community in a progressively digital, transient, secular age where everything from social media to environmental displacement upset and uproot traditional social structures. I am a critical optimist; I believe that with the right approach, community arts and programming has the power to meaningfully enrich people's lives and to prompt spontaneous encounter and exchange among community members-- the kind that builds rapport, trust, and camaraderie. My genuine interest in community and cultural programming coupled with my status as a student give me unique perspective for this position. I would love the chance to represent student interests in Chapel Hill Cultural Arts and to work toward bridging campus and community endeavors. This is something I want to be involved with because I care about the depth, quality, and diversity of community events in Chapel Hill.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have prior experience working within both a public sector division and a social enterprise. I have community organizing experience from various campus involvements, most notably through my involvement with UNC's only student-owned and operated coffee shop 'the Meantime' and the community open-mic series that we put on. I spent an academic year living in Copenhagen, which opened my eyes to a new kind of cultural programming role for municipalities -- an experimental and stimulating brand of cultural activity that brings people together.
