Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Having only lived in Chapel Hill for almost two years now, I have already seen major changes economically, physically, and in the community. As a student of the university, I feel as though I will provide a different perspective than most as I live in the heart of the town and am engulfed in the community.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Currently, I am studying public policy and have had experiences with local government and the community. I feel as though this has allowed me to be more connected with the town of Chapel Hill and their local government and policy efforts.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Am a 55 yearlong resident of Chapel Hill. I am not afraid to speak out candidly about what's good and what's not, good, about our downtown. I bring the unique perspective of someone who travels to numerous University downtowns, is a longtime downtown business owner, and a significant investor in Downtown Chapel Hill,

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Historically, I invested heavily to bring FGI, Panera Bread, Google, Michael Jordans 23 Restaurant, Aveda, Extensibility, Tibco Software, UNC Development, Longfellow Real Estate, and various other significant major tenants and developers to our Downtown. My partnerships and I are also major investors and taxpayers in our Downtown. Times change, and we need to drastically improve the public experience in our downtown. I have traveled extensively throughout the world for many decades. We need to make our downtown as attractive and vibrant as others that people flock to.
