Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I am a former juvenile Probation Officer and i am on disability. Therefore, I can no longer do what I am passionate about. But, I still want to be apart of the community and give back. I've been looking for alternative ways to use both my MBA and my Bachelor's in Social work and this feels like the perfect fit for me. I am also looking for part time employment, where I can use my current skills. I am mostly passionate in terms of community policing when it come to our youth and how this can be utilized in the school systems , with DJJDP and police departments collectively, instead of separate entities. Also, to not stereotype African American as community, as it's often portrayed in the media. So these are some of the things that I am interested in working with The Advisory Board for policing and the chapel hill-carrboro District to reform or transform some beliefs with policing and within the African American community.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have a new position as a Case Manager Diversion Specialist with Volunteers of America Chesapeake and Carolinas, for Durham's Entry point - Homelessness Diversion Program. Entry point is entering and diverting Durhams entire homeless population (even in the pandemic) and we consist of 6 committed powerful women. It's so amazing and a reality checker daily.

Ethics Statement

Question applies to EZ Rider Advisory Committee, Justice in Action Committee, Transportation and Connectivity Advisory Board

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I bring a fresh perspective to any task I'm presented. My motto is: If I don't know the answer, I will find out. I find out by gathering data from the "best" in the industry (right here in Chapel Hill) as I believe data drives progress and wise decisions. While data drives decisions, emotions and feelings do play a role in our personal success. I feel most "excited" when I see equity in our community in action. Equity with race, creed, religion, ability level, age, sexual preference / identification, etc. We all live in the same world and need to consider and respect everyone in the community. I am especially passionate about protecting and investing in (time and planning) our most vulnerable populations, which include those with disabilities (mental and physical), children, elderly, individuals in the recovery community, homeless, survivors of domestic violence, LGBT community, etc. I believe it is our job to create and maintain a safe community for everyone; one where everyone is a positive contributor to our community.

Question applies to multiple boards

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

With my experience personally and professionally with differently-abled individuals (many of whom have interactions with our police department), I feel as though my experience and understanding of this population could be a real asset on this task force. This is a great opportunity to influence how policing and community safety will look in our Town's future. I believe in the power of using our own resources to the fullest as well as sustainability. As an educator, I was able to access services for my continuing education training as well as training for my students that exceeded any expectations, thanks to partnerships formed with UNC, TEACCH, FPG Child Institute, Special Olympics Of Orange County / Town of Chapel Hill, Autism Society of NC, and many other agencies in Chapel Hill for FREE. If I / we can do this within the confines of a classroom and school, this is possible town wide. I look forward to working together to continue to grow Chapel Hill, create a space and place for everyone, supporting community prosperity, nurturing our community, and collaborate as a team. * Resume Attached *

Chapel Hill, NC - Autism Researcher, Educational Coach, Contributor June 2017–June'18

Coached teachers across the state to help their students with autism increase positive behavioral outcomes. Contributor to the autism team at UNC's Frank Porter Graham Child Development Institute, dedicated to bringing real-world solutions to children with autism. The purpose of our project was to document the efficacy of a widely used professional development model that promotes program quality, teachers' use of evidence-based practices (EBPs), and outcomes for elementary school-age children with autism spectrum disorder (ASD).

The professional development model serving as the "treatment" variable in this study was developed by the National Professional Development Center on Autism Spectrum Disorder, has been used with agencies in 12 states, and is currently being used to train hundreds of teachers in the U.S. and other countries. The model consists of forming a team at the building level, taking an online course, participating in an intensive summer workshop, assessing program quality, using program quality information for program improvement, developing measurable student goals, linking goals to EBPs, and implementing EBPs to achieve student goals. A significant feature of this model is the coaching and feedback provided by research staff and local district personnel.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As someone who has never served on a local committee before, I believe I can bring a clear yet concise perspective that has not been tainted by politics. As a resident of Chapel Hill for over 10 years, I believe our community has done well with growth but to a certain extent. Affordable housing is an issue in our community especially for our large minority families. Finding a decent home for a family of six is a challenge without having to pay over 500,000 which is not an option for most families. As a new member to this board I believe I can help ensure that this issue will be addressed and hopefully help assure everyone has the opportunity to become a homeowner. With regards to the policing committee, I would like to be a member of this committee to help improve the relationship with the black committee to ensure we have a healthy understanding on the issues that are currently being address all over the world.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Best skill I have is that I try to look at everyone's point of view before making a decision.

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I have the unique perspective of being a former law enforcement officer as well as certified instructor of police officer courses while also being a journalist with a healthy distrust of authority that I see doing wrong. I believe that a huge problem in policing in this county is that a large portion of the population that wants to hold law enforcement members responsible for their wrong doings are too quick to jump to conclusions without all the facts, while on the flip side, many people that want to wait for the facts never actually want to hold them accountable. As responsible members of our society, we need to be unbiased and review the facts. When the facts demonstrate improper behavior, we must demand that punishments are levied.

Question applies to multiple boards

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I served in the United States Army, as a police officer, and oversaw one hundred private security officers across the state of North Carolina. I also graduated from Elon University with a Bachelor's Degree in Journalism. I have been certified to teach courses in less than lethal tools including OC/Pepper Spray, Batons, Handcuffs, and Defensive Flashlight use as well as Laws Governing Self Defense. I have developed and taught courses in de-escalation, entering and clearing a dwelling, and Shoot/No Shoot Scenarios. I am currently conducting research and beginning a draft to submit to our lawmakers to propose changes to the way policing operates across our state and country that I believe will make the job safer for law enforcement members that are actually trying to do their job properly, while also removing a great deal of the motivation that makes the bad cops break the law in the course of their duties.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I am an idealistic and civic-minded resident. I recently moved back to Chapel Hill after living in California, and I have a renewed appreciation for this town and our state. The 2016 election and the recent protests have really inspired me to get active and to be a part of the changes I want to see happen in our country. I am optimistic about making those changes at the local level. I will be thirty-four this summer, so I think I would bring a semi-youthful perspective to this committee.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

At the moment, I'm applying for work as an administrative assistant, but previously, I worked as a teacher. Most recently, at a Preschool. Working with children (and especially preschoolers) requires a lot of patience and compassion. I have lots of both! I am trying to teach myself Spanish and computer programming (not sure if the computer programming is relevant). I have exceptional communication skills. I am a great listener and I am solutions-oriented.

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I think the most valuable perspective I would bring to the committee is my personal and professional experience with issues closely tied to policing, such as mental health and substance abuse issues. As a graduate student studying law and public policy, I have experience in reading and researching a range of law, policy, and current events. I have found that having personal ties to individuals suffering from mental illness or substance abuse—and having a mental illness myself—has kept me from losing sight of the human side of data and policy work. I also bring the perspective of a nearly lifelong community member and, coming from a multicultural household, I understand the importance of lifting up every lived experience in our community. If chosen for the committee, I would seek to find and give a platform to voices in our community with different lived experiences than my own.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have been researching the North Carolina criminal justice system and mental health support network since 2013, and it was the topic of my published undergraduate thesis. After college, I served as a legal assistant to two criminal defense attorneys, working closely with clients from a range of backgrounds and socioeconomic statuses. And, following my undergraduate research, I decided to attend graduate school with the goal of equipping myself to work on mental healthcare and criminal justice policy in North Carolina after graduation. In law school, I had the opportunity to work with low-income people with serious mental health and/or developmental disabilities in Washington, D.C., who needed legal assistance following encounters with police. I then worked with the NC state government on behavioral health policy, with a focus on the intersections of mental health, substance abuse, and criminal justice. I am currently working at Disability Rights North Carolina for the summer, advocating for the rights of people with disabilities and working to ensure that they can access necessary resources and overcome illegal discrimination. In the fall, I will be doing my Master's Project with the NC Department of Health and Human Services, within the realm of mental health and substance abuse care for people involved in the criminal justice system. In graduate school, I have chosen to volunteer and work directly to support my community. For instance, I have continued work within the NC criminal justice system by volunteering extensively with innocence and post-conviction organizations in North Carolina. As a Federal Navigator for the Health Insurance Marketplace, I have worked closely with low-income community members to assist them in understanding and choosing health care plans that best meet their needs. I also continued working with NC-DHHS throughout the 2019-2020 school year, supporting the launch of programs meant to proactively address the needs of community members and divert them away from criminal justice involvement.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I have 8 yrs of experience working in social science research to improve the criminal justice system (specifically as it relates to policing/law enforcement), and another 3 years of experience (prior to that) as a law enforcement analyst at a local police department similar in size to Chapel Hill. These experiences will allow me to provide perspective on best practices in policing, as well as suggestions for innovative programs being implemented and evaluated at other police departments across the nation.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I grew up in the Triangle area, and have lived in the Town for the past 8 years. I am familiar with the community resources that are available, as well as challenges faced by the Town in providing emergency assistance to its diverse residents.

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I am a recent graduate of UNC's School of Government MPA program. Prior to attaining my Master's degree I worked with low income populations in and around Boston, MA. I worked closely with the housing authority, HUD and non-profit partners to address affordable housing options for the community. I believe that in addition to being a wonderful community we have a duty and responsibility to make sure that all who work here or wish to live here can afford to do so. I studied many aspects of community policing for my public policy work at UNC.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

I am a native North Carolinian and UNC grad who recently brought my family back to the state after living in DC, Colorado, NY and Philadelphia. With a daughter starting kindergarten, we plan to make Chapel Hill our home for the long-term, and I'd like to do whatever I can to help keep the Town moving forward to create a great place to live for our family and every other person that calls Chapel Hill home.

Question applies to multiple boards

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have 20 years of experience and expertise in strategic communications, stakeholder engagement, crisis communications and organizational diplomacy.

Question applies to Reimagining Community Safety Task Force

Please tell us why you are interested in becoming a member of this Task Force.

I have two decades of extensive experience in communications, change management and stakeholder engagement. I'd like to apply this expertise for the Town and Task Force to help ensure optimal input from Town stakeholders during information gathering activities and that there is an effective communication plan to disseminate the Task Force's recommendation, as well as facilitate the Town's implementation of Task Force recommendations.

Question applies to Reimagining Community Safety Task Force

Are you affiliated with any community groups or organizations that work on social justice issues or organizations working to achieve racial equality and social justice? If so, please list those organizations.

I am a donot to the NC ACLU and Meals on Wheel of Orange County, and am hoping to get further involved with similar organizations -- it has been a bit challenging having only arrived here in January and with the pandemic limiting interactions.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Professionally, I have been a Nurse for 15+ years. Working in ED most of those years I have had many occasions to work with the police in a lot of different situations, both good and bad. Personally, I have been in various socioeconomic situations and have experienced law enforcement from various perspectives. I feel that my combination of interaction with law enforcement makes me a great candidate for this position.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.
