Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

My number one concern is climate change. I want to find grass roots ways to protect our environment. Chapel Hill can be a model for the way parks, greenways and smart recreation opportunities can do that. The recent debates regarding funding for recreation have struck a chord with me. Listening to other viewpoints, mixing them with mine, and helping to decide the direction of Chapel Hill's opportunities to make a better and more environmentally sound plan is the primary perspective I can bring to this commission. For example, we could consider the railroad tracks to the University as a greenway to extend foot and bicycle traffic, providing safe ways for people (children, especially) to get to library, schools and stores. Such greenways linked with public transportation can support a more positive growth of our town.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

My professional and personal growth have provided many skills relevant to this commission's work: • I earned my undergraduate degree from UNC-Chapel Hill in Recreation Administration, which gives me a solid understanding of the issues involved with parks and recreation, the impact it has on health and well-being of the community, and the many options available. • Over the years, I have kept myself well-read in environmental health, native plants and animals and water conservation. • I am fairly tech savvy: five years as a court reporter, 14 years with IBM as a systems engineer, and 15 years in corporate education. Because of this, I know how to get information from and to the public. • From 2011 – 2013, I served in the Peace Corps as a health educator working with youth, seniors, and people at risk. Exposed to diverse lifestyles, cultures, and social norms in a foreign country taught me a lot about attending to and understanding others' perspectives. At home I worked with seniors and people in physical rehabilitation in group exercise classes. • In my personal life, I am a real do-it-yourselfer – gardening, art, woodworking - making do with what's available. I can think creatively about solutions with limited resources. • In our neighborhood, in my recreational and social activities, I often take on leadership tasks to create events, and do them well. I am an excellent organizer and administrator.
