What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a young professional who has an almost 3 year-old and 1-year-old, I look forward to assisting the town of Chapel Hill by bringing the perspective of a family with young children. I would love to help a committee to keep our young families engaged and activity in this community. Also, commuting to and from Raleigh on daily basis gives me ample experience in the transportation section.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Public speaking is and has always been an interest of mine. In my professional life, I am an attorney who drafts and negotiates commercial agreements and would be happy to use this experience to assist the town of Chapel Hill.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

I am a local physician, health coach and a bibliophile. I am often haunting the library with my 3 children (and on rare but delightful instances, on my own). I have a love for reading and the access that the public library system gives to the community to foster its own passion for reading and more. I would relish the opportunity to give back in some way to a most beloved institution, the Chapel Hill Library.

I have been at home in libraries since I was old enough to walk to our then town library when I was 8. I'm 72 now, have a Ph.D. in English from UNC, have taught for 40 years before retiring, and am experienced with not only town, but campus, historical, government, medical and special collection libraries (I'm also an artist). I spent 3 years as trustee of the Brown (municipal) Library in Washington, NC, and 8 years on the Board of the Friends of Brown Library, including 3 as its president, which included advocating for library support through the state, county, and local governments. Now that I am back in Chapel Hill, I'd like to be involved again with the Town of Chapel Hill's library, where I am a frequent patron..It's a wonderful library and I'd like to help keep it that way.
