Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I used to work for the Transportation for America campaign within Smart Growth America. I was the Field Director for the campaign and worked to engage stakeholders that were supportive of transportation policies that promoted a transportation system that supported environmentally sound, equitable, economically strong communities. Some of the relevant work that I did there included education around well-designed streets that are safe for all users, including bicyclists and pedestrians (Complete Streets) and the importance of access to public transit. I am passionate about supporting a holistic approach to transportation that makes it possible for all people to have transportation options, including biking, walking, and transit. I conducted focused education on ways that our transportation system could better serve distinct populations, including minority populations in urban areas, senior citizens, people in rural areas, Millennials, and suburban commuters. I built coalitions that included representatives from organizations as diverse as the Nashville Chamber of Commerce, the Urban League, the Navajo Nation Department of Transportation, the AARP, and local and national bicycle and pedestrian advocacy groups. I believe strongly in seeking feedback from all stakeholders to create a holistic approach to a transportation system that benefits everyone. I currently am the Transportation Finance and Operations Manager at the NC Clean Energy Technology Center, where I work with both private and public fleets across the state on ways that they can implement clean transportation technologies. In my current position, I have done research for the U.S. EPA on smart mobility initiatives across the United States. I wish to work to ensure that our transportation system in Chapel Hill is meeting the needs of all residents, including (but not limited to) students, low-income residents, senior citizens, and local businesses. I will actively seek feedback from a diverse range of stakeholders, using my experience in coalition-building around transportation to seek common ground so that decisions are made that best meet everyone's needs. I am equally happy to serve on the Transportation and Connectivity Advisory Board or the Housing Advisory Board. With regards to my experience on housing, I am co-chair of the Housing Committee for the Chapel Hill-Carrboro NAACP, where I work in solidarity with low-income residents of Chapel Hill to elevate their concerns as housing decisions are made.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have been transit dependent in Chapel Hill in the past and still use transit a couple times per month.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a student, I am interested in how the town's long term plans can be leveraged to encourage active transportation and transit connectivity, provide affordable housing for students and other residents, and protect existing residents from displacement.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have experience working in the transportation planning field at the federal level. As a federal employee, I had the opportunity to engage with projects from a variety of cities and states across the U.S. I also had the opportunity to observe how agencies across jurisdictions collaborate to implement and plan projects, which I believe would be valuable experience to bring to the Planning Commission. Outside work experience, I have an interest in planning, design, and architecture which I have pursued academically. My coursework has given me an overview of the community engagement and design strategies that are at the forefront of current planning discourse.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I am applying for the newly created Public Transit seat. Until August 2018, I was a ride to work at university ride, first from Raleigh Road to campus, later from Booker Creek. However, last in August of 2018, now retired with an unexpected financial burden, my car died and I can't repair or replace. I have been using area public transportation exclusively since and learned a lot more than I suspect most about the good and the seriously needs improvement with public transit. Uber, Lyft, cabs are not a viable option financially. For twenty years, I was the director of student services at a department in Gillings School of Global Public Health. While I no longer get direct student input, I am now more aware of the transportation issues of students, especially graduate and professional students and even more so, international arrivals who come from come from countries that have extensive public transit, most 24/7-365. This is the perspective that I bring, that of a regular rider of necessity and one aware of needs of many others, as well as the disdain for using the system by folks in intown neighborhoods.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I can use the standard MS Office. With last job, I organized open house events, and advertised department functions electronically as well as posters. I'm accustomed to making public talks to sizable groups. Further, I talk literally to everyone on buses, sitting on our infamous campus walls from the well-heeled to the homeless. I play with an area Chinese band when I can get to rehearsals, which is very seldom now as practice is in Cary on Sunday. I have helped with one political campaign as well as attending/performing/helping with several area cultural events.

A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.
