Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I would very much like to be more involved in our community and to serve the people of Chapel Hill. I firmly believe in the value of libraries and early childhood literacy, and also in the value of libraries as place. Additionally, I believe I have talents to contribute, including strong organizational skills, communications skills, interpersonal skills and 20 years of experience working in libraries and human resources. My two children (elementary and middle school aged boys) are avid readers and users of the library so I feel I can also effectively represent those constituencies.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I am seeking reappointment to the Library Board. I currently serve as Chair and would love to continue.

Ethics Guidelines for Town Advisory Boards and Commissions

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. Any member who violates this provision may be subject to removal from the board or commission.

If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area.

Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Advisory board and commission applicants shall agree to comply with the ethics guidelines as stated above.

I, TIFFANY ALLEN pledge to comply with the ethics guidelines for advisory boards and commissions as adopted by the Chapel Hill Town Council.

The Chapel Hill Town Library is an important community resource for learning and for supporting Chapel Hill Town Values. As a long-time user of the Library I would like to help support the library and to help to provide and implement library functions for the whole community.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

The Library Advisory Board has made great progress in working as a part of the library team to suggest, support, and implement important programs for the town. Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I'm only applying for the position of Chapel Hill Library Advisory Board. I am a life long educator having worked at my most recent job as a speech pathologist in the Chapel Hill Carrboro Public Schools for 24 years. I also have a background in deaf education. In every job, I've promoted literacy development for children with disabilities. In addition, my husband and I raised 4 children in Chapel Hill and were frequent visitors to the library. In addition, I am a Blue Ribbon Mentor through the schools and and my young African American mentee and I frequented the library for years. My mentee is now in college where we have continued our 10 year relationship. I now bring my grandchildren here (pre-pandemic). Since I can't stay away, I'm a Friend of the Library and have been working to set up the profitable online bookstore during the pandemic. The library and literacy (both for the children and for me) are a huge part of my life, and the institution is invaluable to the community.

Question applies to multiple boards

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have an extensive background in literacy development for children with disabilities. As a speech pathologist for children in Chapel Hill with autism and other developmental disabilities, I feel that all children need better access to reading, and as a result, I've developed a literacy blog, freely sharing adapted books for teachers, parents, and speech pathologists to download at no cost. I would be interested in library initiatives to reach out to children and adults with disabilities. I also feel that for the more typical client, access to current technology, timely book groups, hands on activities, and activities pertaining to current issues such as systemic racism needs to be in the forefront. Our current head librarian, Susan Brown, has been fantastic with all of this. I'd love to see this all continue.

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

My ability to work well with others is shown in the great ability I have making people feel welcomed and comfortable. I would be able to bring an organized work ethic while still maintaining a friendly and welcoming relationship with others at the workplace. I enjoy working with others towards a common goal. I have been involved with working with people and children of different backgrounds and I believe I would bring forth a unique perspective on how to reach many different groups of people all while focusing on our main goal and objectives to achieve.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I am a very organized and fun-loving person. I take pride in the work I do and my ability to serve those around me. One example of my work would be with the organization I have brought to the backlog of the Yolo County Archives. I have taken the time to create a way that 20 plus years of backlog has been organized and has thus been better processed. In doing this, I was promoted to take charge of maintaining and fixing the website (by using Dublin core, HTML, and Omeka) that is used by the public to have access to the digitized collections from the county archives.

Question applies to Historic District Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in history, architecture, archaeology, or related fields? If yes, please explain.

A project I am proud of helping to start was a pilot transcription project for elementary school students. My involvement included meeting with teachers, creating online access to primary records, and compiling work packets of scanned documents for multiple students to work on simultaneously. This project was created to help students learn not only about the California court system in the mid to late 1800's, but also to read, analyze, and understand primary records.

In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I love Chapel Hill. I lived there for 15 years, worked and got my masters and doctorate; moved to Austin Texas in 2006, and I am currently in the middle of a move back to Chapel Hill. I am a teaching professor in the school of library and information science at UNC, and my specialization is cultural heritage organizations, community building for those types of institutions, and how to organize information (typically non-text information) so that it's useful for the people who are searching for it. I have a second masters degree in art history (from UVA), and have worked in some world-class museums. Finally, I am an artist myself, currently working with fabric and information to create unique interpretations of environmental data. I would love to be on the arts commission, and think that my knowledge and expertise in cultural heritage and community building would add a unique perspective to the group. I know that it looks like I'm a newcomer to Chapel Hill, but I have deep ties in the community, and want to get involved! I have served on the board for the last year and a half, and would like to continue for a full term.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I'm unsure what skills the commission needs, but I'm good with computers, I have experience with community building, I am interested in event planning and development, I can write grants, and am a hard worker.
