What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a young professional with three children aged 5, 3, and 10 months, I look forward to continuing to assist the Chapel Hill Public Library by bringing the perspective of a family with young children. I would love to help the board keep our young families engaged and active in this community. I have loved working with the Library Advisory Board over past three years achieve our goals of becoming fine free and I look forward to continuing the work of being an easily accessible asset to all members of our amazing town.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Public speaking is and has always been an interest of mine. In my professional life, I am an attorney who drafts and negotiates commercial agreements and would be happy to use this experience to assist the Library.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I will bring extensive library and music performance experience to the Chapel Hill Public Library Advisory Board and the Cultural Arts Commission. As a recent graduate from Duke University with a PhD in music, I spent much of my time working at the Duke Libraries and Rubenstein Archive. In these internship experiences, I was able to learn about the many services the library provides, especially the ways that librarians connect patrons with digital resources. Working in the libraries over the period of six years, I helped the library staff develop a digital archive for instructors, contributed to a website about early modern women philosophers, and served as a reference librarian in the Rubenstein Archive, helping patrons find documents critical to their research. I bring the perspective of a musicologist to the Cultural Arts Commission. As a performer and scholar of music, I can provide an updated scholarly view of the ways that Chapel Hill can be innovative in the arts programs that it develops. I am also a cellist and singer and currently perform in the SONAM Chorus, a choir that supports local non-profits through benefit concerts. Through this ensemble, I have amplified the music of local composers, raised awareness of local non-profit organizations, and brought people together to learn about and perform music.

Meredith C Graham

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I am a young, new homeowner in Chapel Hill and would like to contribute to the local community. I work in the education division at the National Humanities Center, developing professional development courses for K-12 teachers. Each of these courses is filled with open-access materials and primary sources and activities, so teachers can take our course information directly to their classrooms. Since beginning my job, I have also worked to make our courses more inclusive of teachers from different backgrounds and places and responsive to a modern classroom. I look forward to participating on either the Chapel Hill Public Library Advisory Board or the Cultural Arts Commission. It would be a privilege to serve my community.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Having only lived in Chapel Hill for almost two years now, I have already seen major changes economically, physically, and in the community. As a student of the university, I feel as though I will provide a different perspective than most as I live in the heart of the town and am engulfed in the community.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Currently, I am studying public policy and have had experiences with local government and the community. I feel as though this has allowed me to be more connected with the town of Chapel Hill and their local government and policy efforts.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Thank you for taking the time to consider my application to the Chapel Hill Public Library Advisory Board. I moved with my family back to Chapel Hill in 2021. We previously lived in Carrboro and Chapel Hill from 1999 to 2007 (my spouse and I are both graduates of UNC). Professionally, I am an attorney. I am also a published novelist. In my legal career, I have served my local bar associations in various roles (secretary, chair of the professionalism committee, member of CLE committee). For several years, I was the member of the board of a nonprofit where I served as both vice-president and chair of the governance committee. During my tenure there, I oversaw the identification and selection of new board members and rewrote the bylaw of the organization. I have also been a member of an advisory board for regional nonprofit which provided services to the elderly. In addition to practicing law, I am a writer. I published my first novel, Ancient Oceans of Central Kentucky, in 2014 (a copy of which is currently available in the Chapel Hill Public Library), and have recently finished writing my second. I have published a number of short stories over the years. Literature is my passion and I love the Chapel Hill Public Library. We have a young child and spend a great deal of time at the library--checking out books or coming to story time. The library is one of the essential services to a town and it would be an honor to be able to give some of my time to support it.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Experienced serving on nonprofit board of directors and advisory boards. Have served in various leadership roles on boards, both as officers (vice-president, secretary) and as committee chair (governance, professionalism). Familiar with reviewing financial statements, budgets, and other financial documents. Knowledgeable in corporate documents, governance, contracts, etc. I have created, prepared and presented a number of continuing legal education programs. Comfortable with public speaking and presentations. As mentioned before, I am a life-long lover of reading. My family and I are regular guests of the Chapel Hill Public Library.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I was born and raised in Chapel Hill, graduated CHHS in 1991, and then left for many years before moving back with my wife and 2 sons in 2011. Thus, I have good understanding of how much the town has changed over the years. In addition, my children attend CHCCS, our family frequents the town's parks, and we are all members of the public library. Finally, I have experience with employment law and employee grievances, including having served on the Town's grievance hearing board the past 3 years.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I grew up going to the public library, am currently a member, and value and believe in what the public library offers the town of Chapel Hill. I am a lawyer who has worked in both the private and public sector and I have experience with employment law and employee grievances.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.
