LAND USE MANAGEMENT TEXT AMENDMENT(S)

[\[25-0303\]](#)

Zoning Administrator Corey Liles presented a Land Use Management text amendment related to Planning Commission, Board of Adjustment, Historic District Commission and Community Design Commission rules, noting the item had been before the Council on May 21, 2025 and that it was returning for possible action.

Mr. Liles outlined staff's recommendation and clarified the voting rules of various boards. He reminded the Council that the proposed changes were being offered due to the difficulty of filling all board seats and obtaining a quorum for meeting. He recommended that the Council close the public hearing and consider adopting Resolution 11 and enacting Ordinance 8 amending the Advisory Board Membership Policy.

Board of Adjustment Chair Tom Grasty spoke in opposition to reducing the board's seats to seven members. He requested that all board members who were up for reappointment be seated, as well as two alternates.

Mr. Liles and Planning Director Britany Waddell pointed out that attrition could not be written into the LUMO. In addition, Ms. Waddell cautioned the Council against setting a number based on current availability of members rather than best practices.

Council members discussed the prospect of having alternate board members and weighed the pros and cons of boards ranging from five to ten members.

Mr. Liles described ongoing challenges to recruitment with an emphasis on the Historic District Commission facing challenges with members leaving and not seeking reappointment. He explained reducing the number of seats could lead to a more competitive application process and having a consistent number for all boards would help people understand how they operate.

Council Member Nollert proposed that the Council approve staff's recommendations with the exception of the BOA. He moved to amend Ordinance-8 to change the recommended number of BOA seats from seven to five members, but the motion failed.

A motion was made by Council Member Berry, seconded by Council Member Miller-Foushee, that the Council closed the public hearing. The motion carried by the following vote:

CONTINUED DISCUSSION

14. Update on 828 MLK Property.

[\[25-0304\]](#)

Community Sustainability Manager John Richardson provided an update on recent initiatives regarding contaminated property at 828 Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard including a signed Brownfields Agreement with the NC Department of Environmental Quality, implementing a community engagement strategy, and developed an initial vision for future uses of the site.

Mr. Richardson shared reports of a recent sampling, remediation efforts, and community engagement strategy including weekly newsletters, radio interviews, banner, flier, pop-up events, and an open house at the Public Library. He discussed the uses that the Brownfields Agreement would allow or prohibit on the site, and summarized the results of a Town survey in which respondents listed recreation as their most preferred future use.

Mr. Richardson showed an illustration of where that cap and retaining wall would be located and described next steps which include bringing sketches to the Council in the fall and continuing to determine costs for a feasibility study and engineering plans.

Council members asked questions regarding the feasibility study funding, findings regarding impact on communities, and demographics. Council inquired about the extent of contaminate exposure, the other construction debris at the site, and more information and cost estimates on the hybrid approach.

Nick Torrey, a senior attorney at the Southern Environmental Law Center, spoke about environmental justice and the need for responsible and safe cleanup at both ends of the process. He stressed the importance of sending coal ash to a fully encapsulated landfill that is designed to manage and contain it.

Isabel Geffner, a Chapel Hill resident, confirmed with Mr. Richardson that more than 500 people had visited the Town website, approximately 60 had voted in the survey and encouraged the Council to consult more with Mr. Torrey.

Stephen Fleck, a Chapel Hill resident, expressed deep concern about the issues and spoke in favor of Mr. Torrey's comments.

Council members spoke in favor of recreational facilities, making sure that equity is at the forefront of any remediation discussions, and commitment to safety of the community.

This matter was received and filed.

15. North-South Bus Rapid Transit (NSBRT) Project Milestone Update

[\[25-0305\]](#)

Transit Development Manager Katy Fontaine presented an update on the North-South Bus Rapid Transit (NSBRT) plan, detailing its features and progress. She described how the 8.2-mile NSBRT corridor would include 5.7 miles of bus only lanes and 17 premium station areas, offering seven-day service with extended hours and reduced wait times. She noted the project has reach 60% design completion, with the next phase involving preparation of construction documents to achieve 90% design.

Ms. Fontaine elaborated on the site-specific adjustments made since the 30% design phase, highlighting the collaborative efforts between the Town and the North Carolina Department of Transportation (NC-DOT) on road improvements, cost-sharing agreements, and construction management expertise. She reported on ongoing engagement with affected property owners and businesses, as well as the launch of an education initiative by the Town's Marketing and Communications team.

Ms. Fontaine highlighted the NSBRT schedule including federal readiness reviews, risk workshops, and a grant application to the Federal Transit Administration. She noted staff plan to commence right-of-way acquisition, utility relocation, and construction bidding next year, with construction slated to begin in 2027 and the NSBRT launch planned for 2029.

Transit Planning ManagerCarolyn Dwyer noted that federal draft bills contained more transit funding than anticipated and that the FTA has been disbursing funds at a faster rate than in the past. She also mentioned potential additional funding sources that could advance the project, highlighting that the step from 60% to 90% design is relatively minor.

This matter was received and filed.
