Question applies to multiple boards

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Housing Advisory: I work for Carolina Housing at UNC and have worked for the various Departments of Housing for 7 years. I have a vested interest in providing affordable, fair and safe housing in Chapel Hill and am particularly interested in how UNC students impact the local residents ability to live in Chapel Hill.
Justice in Action: I am a member of the MultiCultural Competence Committee for Carolina Housing and professionally as well as personally feel a call to the Justice in Action committee. As a part of my role I advise Social Justice Advocates in a large student organization at UNC.

Question applies to multiple boards

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Skilled at managing and supervising large budgets, assessment of outcomes and learning objectives, and developing and implementing trainings. I have excellent interpersonal skills and collaboration skills. As the advisor to Social Justice Advocates, I develop intersectional curriculum for the students to explore systems of oppression, privilege, power, advocacy and ally-identity development. I work with students facilitate modules on such topics to their peers in the student organization to allow students to experience the impact that social justice mindsets can have on themselves, their community, and the world at large.

Ethics Statement

Question applies to multiple boards

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As someone who has never served on a local committee before, I believe I can bring a clear yet concise perspective that has not been tainted by politics. As a resident of Chapel Hill for over 10 years, I believe our community has done well with growth but to a certain extent. Affordable housing is an issue in our community especially for our large minority families. Finding a decent home for a family of six is a challenge without having to pay over 500,000 which is not an option for most families. As a new member to this board I believe I can help ensure that this issue will be addressed and hopefully help assure everyone has the opportunity to become a homeowner. With regards to the policing committee, I would like to be a member of this committee to help improve the relationship with the black committee to ensure we have a healthy understanding on the issues that are currently being address all over the world.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Best skill I have is that I try to look at everyone's point of view before making a decision.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

HOUSING: I'm a homeowner, a landlord, and an advocate for affordable housing. My husband and I purchased our home in 1992 so my mother could live in the 1-bedroom attached accessory apartment. Some years after she died, my father-in-law also lived there. Between those years and since his death we have rented out the apartment to long-term tenants. The current occupant has lived here eight years without a rent increase. Assisted a Karen refugee family through the process of purchasing a townhome at Rosemary Place, Meadowmont (2000). Board member (2002-2004) & staff member (2004-2006) Orange Community Housing & Land Trust (now Community Home Trust). Advisory Committee member, IFC Good Neighbor Plan (2011) and IFC@SECU Community House (2015). Grantwriter, Inter-Church Council Housing Corporation (InChuCo), for successful Orange County Affordable Housing Bond Program funding (2020). TRANSPORTATION: Carpooled or took NS bus from Stateside Dr to Southern Village office (2006-2015). Chapel Hill Transportation Advisory Board member (2000-2006), chair (2005-2006). Still driving 2004 Prius.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Over the course of the past 9 years the positions that I have held and assignments I've been tasked to perform have prepared me for this task force. I am applying for this position with a multi dimensional perspective and outlook on life. I am an active homeowner within the community and I have years of experience on a variety of task forces and commission so the process and cadence they require are all too familiar to me. I have my Masters of Business Administration (MBA) and I am currently a 3rd year dental school student at UNC-Chapel Hill. With my extensive education in the field of business I can appreciate the give and take compromise driven relationship the city must maintain with its citizens. Fiduciary responsibility is a concept that our MBA program preached to us from the first day of class till the day we received our diplomas. On the task force I will provide an impartial strategic perspective. We are obligated to do what is in the best interest of our stakeholders who are the hardworking, tax paying citizens whom call Chapel Hill home. As a dentist, I also bring a wholistic health approach to the task force. I understand that health is mental just as much as it is physical. This is why providing a safe environment for our children and elderly is a priority. Interacting with hundreds of citizens on a yearly basis as a dental medicine student I have had a unique opportunity to educate them on not only the importance of one's oral health, but also the importance of one's community and surroundings. These are just a few of the perspectives I hope to bring to our City Counsel's Task Force.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

As an active member in my present and past communities, I have been privileged with the opportunity to serve on a wide range of action committees and task forces. One of the most impactful experiences took place while completing my undergraduate and graduate studies at East Carolina University. I was able to serve on the Resident Hall Advisory Board from 2011-2014. During this time, I worked on the board with a unique group of hardworking Resident Advisors, consisting of 11 members. As a board we planned and implemented many reforms that have shaped the current landscape of ECU's campus living community. As a task force we were able to oversee the opening of two resident halls and the renovation of 3 outdated residence halls. Here in Chapel Hill I am an active member of my condominium's community homeowners association. Through routine dialogue with my neighbors and remaining visible within my community, I have been able to learn a great amount about the needs and desires of my neighbors. Many of them are not opposed to becoming engaged in Town Hall related matters, many of them just need to be engaged and informed. I will continue to inform them of the progression our city has and will be making and I seek to step into this role so I can begin serving our city in an official capacity. As a 3rd year dental school student at UNC-Chapel Hill I have also taken an active role in the finances and local housing concern of my classmates. I am currently serving my 3rd term as Class of 2021 Treasure, amongst a host of other roles. As treasurer and a homeowner I have been able to host financial workshops for other fellow homeowners in Chapel Hill and those interested in becoming owners soon or upon graduation. Hosting these workshops have motivated me to apply for this current role. I receive an abundance of questions on the direction of Chapel Hill because dozens of my collogues are in the process of deciding if they will stay in the area upon graduation or if they will uproot their family and build their practices in another, nearby community. I love the spirit of Chapel Hill and I believe this is the perfect place to raise my family, so the thought of losing dozens of my collogues and the impact they can create in and around Chapel Hill as practicing dentist or faculty has been weighing on my mind. Professionals in my field operate on facts, so If granted this opportunity to serve in an official capacity I know my classmates will begin to see how interwoven and integral we can become with the future of Chapel Hill. Ultimately they may feel more compelled to stay in the area if it is their calling instead of possibly leaving in an attempt to secure a higher paying position.

Please describe your experience with Short Term Rentals (STRs). Discuss how STRs have effected your experience as a resident, property owner, or your business. Address any concerns you may have about STRs or your views on the regulation of STRs. This information is being used in an effort to create a task force that equally represents different stakeholder interests and opinions on this topic.

I have patronized Short Term Rentals (STR) for nearly 10 years now. My experiences have been overall positive. These rentals have allowed me to travel to dozens of cities in North America, Europe, and Africa. STRs have allowed me to live as a local and get a good feel for an area that I would have otherwise left unexplored. When I was applying to dental schools I rented out STRs for full weeks so I could get a better feel for the area and community. Before I chose UNC-Chapel Hill I also visited STR in Greenville, NC, Columbia, SC, Louisville, KY and Nashville, TN. Those week long visits gave me enough time to not only interview and visit the dental schools, they also enabled me to explore the cities to see if each particular city would be a place I could imagine settling down with my fiancé and starting a family. Now as an operator I am able to provide the homestyle feel to visitors of Chapel Hill that helped me fall in love with the city. Now I am an ambassador of Chapel Hill to all my guests. I am able to meet new people from a multitude of backgrounds on a weekly basis learning more and more with each encounter. I feel that I have 5 maybe 6 days to impart each guest with a positive impression of our town in hopes they may one day come back and settle down here like I have and provide value to our community or even simply share positive words of their experience. My views on regulation are in favor of the safety and integrity of our community. This Task Force must help generate a sustainable system to keep track of who is coming in and out. As an operator I believe it is fair to provide means for each host to register their space so communications and updates can be effectively disseminated and received. That is my main concern. How can we get more users and hosts actively involved in this process. The same way Blockbuster was left behind by not adopting to Netflix's instant movies technological breakthrough is the same way STR have swept the nation. I do not want Chapel Hill to be late adaptors. Instead we must be proactive at getting all the shareholders to the table and come to viable resolutions so we can leave more people with positive impressions of Chapel Hill while also maintaining and upholding the integrity of the city for our families.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

For the last decade I have worked for Habitat for Humanity in Orange County, and currently lead organizational efforts to engage supporters in housing policy advocacy. I have significant professional experience working in affordable housing in Chapel Hill/Carrboro and bring a clear understanding of how housing instability impacts every corner of a person's life. Beyond the impact to the individual, a lack of housing opportunity and diversity harms our entire community. For those same 10 years I rented a townhome in Carrboro and have just recently moved to a single family rental home in Chapel Hill. In addition to my professional experience in affordable housing, I bring the perspective of a young working professional in the missing middle, who ultimately cannot afford home prices in Chapel Hill or Carrboro but is over income to qualify for programs like Habitat or Community Home Trust. I view the Housing Advisory Board - Affordable Housing Advocate position as a valuable opportunity to champion for housing access at various price points in service to my community.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I am currently pursuing a Master in Public Policy degree with an emphasis on housing policy, and am midway through my part-time program. I co-chair Orange Habitat's Advocacy Committee and serve on the Orange County Affordable Housing Coalition Advocacy Committee. I also serve on a policy and advocacy advisory group with Habitat for Humanity International that provided feedback to shape the organization's five year national advocacy campaign.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

The perspective that I bring to the board is diversity, middle age perspective, with a spice of mom that cares for the future of Orange County. Essentially, I would bring a fierce- ambitious attitude. In the past my ambition has led me to take on roles of leadership when necessary. My last job saw a lot of turnover. I had only been with the company for a month- but I was still one of the workers with the most experience. My supervisor was sick on the day of a big presentation. My coworkers and I were worried about who would take the lead. I willingly stepped in and presented what we had worked on. This and similar experiences- have showed me I thrive on these types of challenges. On the board I would confidently work with the team and willingly take leadership roles when necessary however I would also sit back and listen to others perspectives with out being dogmatic and remember that the main goal is to assist in the growth of the Town and surrounding areas.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Relevant qualifications I bring are soft skills i.e. customer service, communication, technical and organizational skills. I often donate food and volunteer with the great people of Carrboro and Chapel Hill whom are affected by this major issue. I would like to speak for those who may not or cannot speak for themselves due to time constraints, fear, finances or lack of knowledge of this role.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a resident of Chapel Hill for more than 20 years, I am very familiar with the town and have followed closely the local issues that affect our residents. I am particularly interested in the issue of housing and see the need to have adequate and varied housing options for residents of all income levels as well as appropriate student housing availability. I see a critical need for more rental housing options for very low income residents, including housing providers who will accept subsidies (e.g. Housing Choice Vouchers). I believe housing should be planned, constructed, and maintained in ways that help create a high quality of life for all residents. This would include attention to things like housing density, traffic impacts, proximity to retail and services, transportation options, walkable/bike-able access routes, diverse neighborhoods, protection of historic neighborhoods, and appropriate architectural designs.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Past relevant employment, volunteer experience, and education include: - Social Worker, Orange County Department of Social Services. Represented people experiencing or at risk of homelessness who had a disability to the Social Security Administration as they applied for disability income/insurance. The objective was to enable these individuals to secure housing. - HomeStart Program Manager, Inter-Faith Council for Social Service (IFC). Managed operations and social work/case management support at shelter for women and families experiencing homelessness. Also served as case manager and client services rep in previous roles with IFC. - Habilitation Counselor, Alberta Professional Services. Supported residents of a group home for adults with severe and persistent mental illnesses. - Human Services Advisory Board, Town of Chapel Hill. Vice-Chairperson. - Community Development Block Grant Review Board, Town of Chapel Hill. - Personnel Appeals Committee (renamed Grievance Hearing Board), Town of Chapel Hill. - Orange County Partnership to End Homelessness. Project Connect, Point-In-Time Count. - Master of Social Work degree from UNC-Chapel Hill.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a local resident with lived experience of homelessness, I feel inspired by the Town of Chapel Hill's commitment to addressing housing insecurity. Rather than simply funding non-profit initiatives, the Town embraces a more active role, directly developing new units and preserving existing homes. Participating on the Housing Advisory Board as an Affordable Housing Advocate represents a unique opportunity to support such efforts and honor my deepest belief that everyone deserves a safe and stable home. I first began critically engaging with housing insecurity while at Bowdoin College, participating on and leading volunteer trips focused on homelessness among chronically-ill patients, immigrants, and LGBTQ youth. After gaining such exposure, I explored these issues academically, examining the causes and effects of homelessness, as well as potential responses to housing crises. For instance, I assessed HUD-funded homeless healthcare initiatives under the McKinney-Vento and HEARTH Acts, compiling literature reviews to ultimately recommend policies and programs. Thereafter, I researched how government agencies, public institutions, and non-profit groups in Argentina facilitate access to shelter. I later published this paper as an Honors thesis in Sociology, further analyzing how these sectors reimagine rights to housing. More essential to this board role, I also possess a professional background in street outreach and housing advocacy. As a Health Guide with Homeless HealthPartners in Maine, I conducted interim social work, helping individuals experiencing or at risk of homelessness connect with primary care providers and apply for Expanded Medicaid. Through this role, I also referred clients to shelters, sober living facilities, and Housing First sites, thus becoming quite familiar with Coordinated Entry, Rapid Rehousing, and Continuum of Care programs. Thereafter, I traveled around various countries as a Thomas J. Watson Fellow, exploring how peer-based initiatives empower people confronting homelessness to share experiences, develop solidarity, and help one another survive the streets. In addition to visiting such projects, I directly interviewed individuals sleeping out, documenting and publishing their stories on social media. This fellowship exposed me to numerous initiatives to not only expand affordable housing, but also construct communities amongst those enduring homelessness. At the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, I moved to Chapel Hill and began assisting local organizations with linking housing insecure tenants to mutual aid and anti-eviction resources. Since October 2020, I have worked as a Peer Support Navigator with Orange County's new Street Outreach, Harm Reduction, and Deflection (SOHRAD) program. In this role, I connect people experiencing homelessness with permanent housing, transitional shelter, emergency supplies, and other social services. On a daily basis, I witness the difficulties of locating an affordable apartment on a fixed income, especially when few properties accept Housing Choice Vouchers. I regularly assist people whose disabilities have impacted their criminal histories with opposing discrimination and requesting reasonable accommodation. I understand the frustrations of seniors placed on year-long waitlists for subsidized housing because their retirement benefits cannot cover rent. Of course, our Street Outreach program confronts such obstacles creatively, collaborating with other government agencies, non-profit organizations, and local partners to successfully house our unsheltered community members. As the Affordable Housing Advocate, I hope to expand my skills beyond social work, helping directly inform and support solutions to housing inequity. Furthermore, I aim to apply my passions for street outreach by actively incorporating unsheltered and low-income residents in the Town's decisions, empowering community members to voice their own experiences and directly inform future initiatives. Ultimately, I will support the Housing Advisory Board in increasing access to affordable homes, especially among historically underserved populations, thus creating more resilient, inclusive, and vibrant communities.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Through my roles with Homeless HealthPartners, the Watson Fellowship, and SOHRAD, I have acquired ample experience conducting community outreach and amplifying the concerns of various stakeholders. I feel quite comfortable approaching strangers, constructing networks, and mediating relationships between diverse (and even opposing) parties. As a Certified Peer Support Specialist, I furthermore can connect effectively with people in recovery from diverse forms of trauma (including housing insecurity), knowing how to listen attentively and promote hope through positive disclosure of my own personal history. Similarly, I have also completed photo-journalistic projects, in which I interviewed people sleeping unsheltered and humanized social issues via their individual stories. Moreover, through my academic studies, professional experience, and other training, I have continually examined how systemic racism influences housing disparities and, as such, feel confident centering anti-racism in my work. Lastly, due to time spent living in Latin America, I can speak, read, and write Spanish fluently. Altogether, I believe these skills will enable me as the Affordable Housing Advocate to build trusting relationships with local residents and thus more accurately present their concerns to the Town and Advisory Board. I appreciate your time, and thank you for considering my application.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

That minorities who are residents of Chapel Hill, have been residents for a specified amount of time (to be determined on a later date), are single parents (man or woman) of at least one child under the age of thirteen, AND are currently enrolled either as a graduate student at an institute of higher education (University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, North Carolina State University, or Duke University), or are at least a part time students at a community college (online or on campus attendees) in this state should be given the opportunity to apply for a town sponsored grant that mitigates a negotiable (on the second year after approval by the Housing Advisory Board) percentage of their monthly rent to be put toward their permanent (and current) residence to be determined by the sitting members of the Housing Advisory Board. If not the rent, then the utilities (only water and electric) should be negated from the applicants expenses for the duration of the applicants school semesters as long as the applicant continues to attend all classes (online or on-campus) until the next session at which time this grant will be debated. This act will support those who are obviously eager to improve themselves and their ability to contribute to the progress of their community and chosen career field. Without the much needed assistance that the town of Chapel Hill could provide, anyone with less than adequate skills or job experience, or requires a certification and/or degree to enhance their capability to care for their child(ren) will most likely be held hostage by their own deficiencies, which may or may not be, of their own making. The ambition a person can in no way be measured by others, and even those who are currently seated as members of the Housing Advisory Board on this day did not know that they would still be there at this same time last year. If life, and community, and the human experience is able to guarantee us anything, it is the certainty that we will be sure to expire if we do not continuously improve ourselves. Therefore those who are minorities in our community and are already victimized by obvious economic disadvantages, yet are resilient, brave, and inspired to evolve should be given the assistance needed to alleviate the stresses incurred by other responsibilities that must be attended to during their development.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I don't have and relevant qualifications but I do have the experience of growing up in the same duplex I live in now with a single parent who struggled with being able to provide for her only child (me) whom she was ill equipped to care for. Even with eleven different adults that were related to her by virtue of being the nieces, nephews, or siblings of her own father. Even though some of them were Ivy League graduates, and worked for the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. It would be a shame if I were not to take advantage of this opportunity to share her story with someone who will surely deny me a seat at the table (because you'd be crazy not to) but would at the very least read this and hopefully understand that many of the children who have the potential to make it out of Chapel Hill and don't were overlooked by teachers, counselors, and other adults because no one thought to ask the child "how can I help you?". I wish I could show you all of the assignments I aced in my first semester of high school before I asked the fateful question "Mom how am I going to pay for college?". The answer caused me to give up on myself and my future. I do not want another child to make that same mistake, so please at least consider this to a warning. That quite literally, this idea could be the difference between a single parent, who is not me, with three children currently living with him (two girls, one boy who is the youngest; all under thirteen) deciding to remain working at Jiffy Lube for ten years before he finally becomes a manager, instead of being able to apply for a grant that will give him a chance to acquire a laptop from Durham Tech to take online business management courses (or something similar to that) to push him toward his goals quicker.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I joined the Chapel Hill-Carrboro community in 2009 when my family and I came to the U.S. as refugees from Burma. I am currently in the process of getting a Bachelor's Degree at UNC, and I feel that as a minority student and a refugee from a non-English speaking community, I will bring new insight and unique perspectives to the Housing Advisory Board. Growing up in Chapel Hill as a refugee is hard. I watch my parents struggle to find resources so that life won't be so difficult in Chapel Hill. It not easy for them to find these resources. For example, there is no interpreter when they have to go to a housing meeting or need to fill out a government document. Language is a barrier for them, and I feel that there is a need for the town to provide interpreters, as well as other resources, for the members of our community who struggle to get the help they need. After watching my parents struggle, I began to work with a nonprofit organization called Refugee Community Partnership (RCP). I began working with them as part of the Carrboro High School branch, and I have continued to work with them as a UNC student. RCP's main goal is to reach out to refugee families from many backgrounds (Burmese, Karen, Syrian and Congolese) and provide support and resources. Working directly with these families has helped me see that many people share my parents' experience at town, county, and school offices. As a member of the Housing Advisory Board, I would hope to help the town of Chapel Hill identify the barriers to information these families face, and then to help implement programs to improve their access.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

In the summer of 2016, I worked for the town of Chapel Hill through the Youth Employment Program. With this program I was assigned to work at Northside Elementary school. In my position I learned to work with different people, to adapt to a variety of workspaces, and to organize my tasks efficiently. When I started the job at Northside, I was an IT assistant in charge of working throughout the building changing and cleaning the projector filters. After several weeks, I was assigned to take over the receptionist's job. Because I was already familiar with all parts of the building from my work as IT assistant, I made a smooth transition to the reception desk. I learned my new role quickly, and I gained more experience working with parents, teachers, and the vice principal. I called and answered phone calls from parents, organized materials, and organized tasks for the vice principal. As I started my Bachelor's degree, I continued to work with Refugee Community Partnership for my work study. I manage the database for the RCP as well as the payroll, but my responsibilities do not stop there: I often work outside of my scheduled office time to coordinate with refugees to provide translation services for important documentation, to call refugees to gather information or to update them about various matters. One of my favorite community projects involves encouraging high school students from the refugee community to consider higher education. Working with RCP is helping me build skills for what I want to do which is to become a social worker. With RCP I am able to work with other non-profit organizations like Compass Center for Women and Families, Family Success Alliance, as well as the Town of Chapel Hill for Chapel Hill Building Integrated Communities Action Plan. I have the experience of working with the Town of Chapel Hill and as well as working with other non-profit organization to improve the community.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.
