E: Applicable Design Guidelines

The Town's Design Guidelines for the Chapel Hill Historic Districts are integral to the application and review process. These guidelines supplement the required review criteria for Certificate of Appropriateness applications (provided in Section 3.6.2\(e\)\(4\) of the Land Use Management Ordinance) by providing detailed, practical considerations for how to make changes to properties while preserving the special character of their Historic District context. Please review the Design Guidelines and consider their applicability to your proposed project. (Attach additional sheets, as necessary.)

G: Applicant signature

I hereby certify that I am authorized to submit this application; that all information is correct to the best of my knowledge, and all work will comply with the State Building Code and all other applicable State and local laws, ordinances, and regulations.

I acknowledge and agree that the Historic District Commission members, Town employees, and Town agents may enter, solely in performance of their official duties and only at reasonable times, upon the applicant's property for examination or survey thereof pursuant to North Carolina General Statute 160A-400.8. However, no member, employee, or agent of the Historic District Commission may enter any private building or structure without the express consent of the owner or occupant thereof.

I understand and agree that an approved Certificate of Appropriateness is valid only for the particular application, plans, specifications and related project details presented to, and approved by, the Historic District Commission. If any of the data contained in this application, any plans or any specifications presented to the Commission are changed or altered for any reason, including, but not limited to, changes or alternations deemed practically necessary during construction, required due to subsequent Town reviews, or otherwise, a new hearing before the Historic District may be required. By signing below, the applicant agrees to notify the Development Services Center of any changes or alternations in the data contained in this application, the approved plans or the approved specifications related to the project that is the subject of this application.

Hearings on Certificate of Appropriateness applications before the Commission are quasi-judicial proceedings. Therefore, Historic District Commission members are not permitted to discuss a pending application with the applicant or other party. By signing below, the applicant agrees to refrain from speaking with or contacting any member of the Historic District Commission about an application outside of the formal evidentiary hearing on the application.

To whom it may concern:

Olive Architecture has been asked by the homeowners, Anna and Amir Barzin at 412 E. Rosemary St to design a backyard accessory building. Initially, the homeowners requested to expand and add a second story to the existing storage shed in order to convert the structure into the desired workshop below and apartment above. However, our findings were that the existing shed is already built within the zoning setbacks, the structure itself is in disrepair and in all likelihood lacks sufficient foundation.

We find that the best approach to this project is to demolish the existing small shed and construct a new accessory building that adheres to zoning and historic district standards. The new structure will be within the setbacks and completely behind the boundaries of the existing house. The only exception will be the exterior stair leading to the upper floor. A part of this stair will be visible from the street and shall be constructed to match as closely as possible, the existing front porch details while maintaining code compliance.

Additionally, the homeowners have requested to expand segments of the fence to create an enclosed side yard and rear patio. This fence will be constructed to the same design and standards. Please see the drawing package for illustration of all design intent.

No additional impervious surface will be added by this project as the new accessory building will be constructed on what is now paved parking.

Sincerely,
Jason Dail
Designer / Project Manager

and-batten sheathing, vinyl windows, and a six-panel door. A smaller shed first appears on the 1932 Sanborn map, but has been enlarged, likely in the 1970s.

401 E. Rosemary – VACANT402 E. Rosemary – parking lot*404 E. Rosemary – House – c. 1940*C – Building

This one-story, side-gabled Ranch house is five bays wide and double-pile with the right (west) two bays under a slightly lower roofline. The house has aluminum siding, eight-over-eight wood-sash windows, and an interior brick chimney. The louvered storm door is sheltered by a shed-roofed porch on grouped square posts. The rear (south) of the right two bays are an inset porch enclosed with fixed windows. There is a gabled ell at the left rear (southeast) and a flat-roofed addition at the right rear (southwest) that is accessed by a wood ramp. A low stone wall extends across the front of the property. According to Sanborn maps, the house was constructed between 1932 and 1949.

408 E. Rosemary – House – c. 1910C – Building

The earliest house on this block of Rosemary Street, this two-story, side-gabled house is three bays wide and double-pile with plain weatherboards, twenty-over-one wood-sash windows, exposed molded rafter tails, and an exterior brick chimney in the left (east) gable. The house has a one-light-over-two-panel door with an eight-light transom that is sheltered by a wide, hip-roofed porch on square columns. There is an eight-over-eight window centered on the second floor above the entrance. An exterior metal fire stair accesses a gable-end entrance on the right (west) elevation and there is a one-story, shed-roofed wing at the right rear (southwest) with a one-story, shed-roofed screened porch beyond it. The house appears on the 1915 Sanborn map, the earliest to cover this part of town.

412 E. Rosemary – House – c. 1920, c. 2002C – Building

This two-story, hip-roofed, Colonial Revival-style house is five bays wide and double-pile and retains a high level of integrity with weatherboards, six-over-six wood-sash windows, and an interior brick chimney. The seven-panel door has a classical surround with pilasters supporting the entablature. It is sheltered by a three-bay-wide, hip-roofed porch supported by columns with an original railing. A one-story, hip-roofed wing extends the full width of the rear (south) elevation and has a stuccoed foundation, weatherboards, and vinyl windows with vertical sheathing between the windows. According to Sanborn maps, the house was constructed between 1915 and 1925. The rear wing replaced a smaller one-bay-wide ell after 2002.

C-Building – Garage, c. 1920 – Front-gabled, frame garage with German-profile weatherboards and batten doors faces west.
