Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I arrived in the student exchange program with UNC Chapel Hill, then lived in Chapel Hill on and off for several years. I opened my Real Estate business in 1996 and worked with many first time home buyers that had low income and affordable housing. I was able to help several clients to get affordable housing in Chapel Hill NC over the years but it was never an easy task!

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I am communication and negotiation expert with 26 years of local Real Estate experience. I am also Certified Financial Consultant, so I have a full understanding of many low income families needs for affordable housing.

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Non-Chapel Hill Board Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Long relevant life experience in lower-income and affordable housing, due to disability and poverty. Lifelong interest in anti-poverty programs and work -- including: 1964 North Carolina Fund Volunteers "First 100 College Students" for volunteer antipoverty program; working in US "War on Poverty" in 1965-68 as Summer Intern in Research, Policy, Programming, and Evaluation, and in Community Action Program; volunteer outreach work in black voter registration prior to 1964 US election.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

A long life of diverse and relevant experience -- including: birth and growing up in/returning to North Carolina (41 years), living in DC (1 year), (US territory of) Puerto Rico (14 years), California (2 years), upstate New York (1 year), and Georgia (21 years). Due to my diverse experience of living in Puerto Rico, I experienced and enjoyed substantial acculturation (often as a minority of one); and evaluate, consider and self-classify myself as bicultural/biethnic North American/Hispanic Latino. Speak Spanish.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

BA in Sociology (Duke), M. of Planning Degree (U-Puerto Rico), PhD in City and Regional Planning (UC-Berkeley)," JD Degree (Georgia State). Specialized education in socio-economic demography and social programs and policies planning --which I have taught in Cornell University and U. of Puerto Rico schools of planning, and in which I worked for Puerto Rico Planning Board. Drafted US agency report on "Social Conditions and Human Services Programs in Puerto Rico" for US Economic Study of PR.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Summary Resume for Chapel Hill Boards and Commissions

Education: Duke University; Durham, NC: BA in Sociology --- Univ. of Puerto Rico; San Juan, PR: Master of Planning (Urban, Regional, Social, Economic) --- UC-Berkeley; Berkeley, California; PhD in City and Regional Planning --- Georgia State University College of Law; Atlanta, Georgia: Juris Doctorate (JD).

Work Experience: My work experience extends over fifty-seven years, since I graduated from Duke University in 1965 -- when I first went to work in DC in the think tank of the "War on Poverty". I learned from and still consider relevant all my work experience. Due to a lifelong disability of mental illness of depression, first diagnosed at Duke University in 1962; my extended education; and going on Social Security Disability Insurance in 1992 - most of my work experience has transitioned over time from past paid employment work to diverse and ongoing volunteer work over a period of thirty years. I also consider all of my Lived Life Experience quite relevant. Detailed resumes of my employment and volunteer work are available.

Publications/Presentations: My publications relate to my past fifteen-year academic and professional residence and work in Puerto Rico -where I learned Spanish, and experienced acculturation, such that I now consider myself bicultural/biethnic. Those publications include Politics and Population in the Caribbean, and Development Planning and Population Policy in Puerto Rico (my PhD dissertation for UC-Berkeley). My presentations include a long list about Social Security Disability Work Incentives presented at many Disability Advocacy Conferences (detailed list available).

Honors: My honors are primarily volunteer service on multiple boards, etc. including: Wake County Human Services Board to represent persons with mental illness -- until services divested under Mental Health Medicaid Waiver to Alliance. Then served maximum of two terms on Wake County Consumer and Family Advisory Committee (CFAC). (Pending member of Orange County CFAC.) Member of NAMI-NC Board of Directors (several years).

Have served on three NC Protection and Advocacy (P&A) Boards, and also on their Protection and Advocacy for Persons with Mental Illness (PAIMI) Advisory Councils: (1) Governor's Advocacy Council for Persons with Disabilities (GACPD), (2) Carolina Legal Services (CLA). and (3) Disability Rights North Carolina (DRNC). Current Member of Monarch NC Board of Directors (several years).

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Given the growth in Chapel Hill and the RTP Area, and the increase in housing costs, affordable housing for those less fortunate is very important to me.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I work with the Affordable Housing Committee of Durham CAN (Churches, Associations and Neighborhoods), a non-profit organization that advocates for those minimalized. I am a former Board Member of Families Moving Forward (FMF), a non-profit that works to transition homeless families with children to stable housing environments. I have a daughter working full-time that cannot afford a home in Chapel Hill.
