Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I have lived in Chapel Hill area most of my life and raised 5 children here. I was a builder for 20 years before taking a job with Orange County Government. During the economic downturn I returned to NC State University and received a Master of Architecture. I recently retired from the position of Chief Building Inspector. I feel I have a unique perspective as as a resident, local business owner, my involvement in community development and the health and welfare of the citizenry.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I research areas of concern prior to comment or recommendation, knowing an informed approach is best for the widest spectrum of any community. I am practiced public speaker and have presented to local, state and national organizations.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

Over fifty years of professional experience as a writer, actor and director in theatre and film industry. Served on drama and theatre panels for the London arts council. Served on the Dance panel of Greater London arts. Director of the Shaw Theatre in London. Directed of three international festivals. Former member of the Orange County Art Commission. Wrote and performed in plays locally. Currently a performer, and screenwriter. Latest release out this year is "Gilpin" a film about the actor to first play Emperor Jones on Broadway, About the perform at the Oslo Impro festival with my company Paul and Ian's One Man show,

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Throughout my career as an Arts practitioner I have a vast amount of experience of writing grants and budget proposals. I am very active in the approach to finding new performance spaces, both formal and new/unusual venues. A major feature of my career in the Arts is as an advocate for the under-served communities. I am not afraid to take on established and reactionary forces who want to keep the Arts safe and bourgeois.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I am an ecologist and environmental policy specialist. For the last 35 years my primary focus has been conservation, education, and research of tropical biodiversity. I served for a dozen years as the director of the Smithsonian Institution's Center for Tropical Forest Science and then another dozen years as the President and CEO of the Organization for Tropical Studies (a consortium of university and research institutes based at Duke University). I am currently a senior fellow at Duke's Nicholas Institute for Environmental Policy Solutions, working on mitigating the risks to climate and biodiversity from China's infrastructure lending across the globe. I would like to bring these global perspectives to issues we face here in Chapel Hill.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have a PhD in ecology and evolutionary biology from Princeton University and a master's degree in public administration from Princeton's Woodrow Wilson School. I have managed organizations with more than 200 employees and multi-million dollar budgets. Personally I have a great love of hiking and spending time in the outdoors and especially in protected areas.

Reasons for wanting to serve on this board:

I am newly retired and have time for new activities.
My residence is located on a lot that spans both the JPA Transition Area and the Chapel Hill city limits.
I believe the JPA is under represented in Chapel Hill planning decisions and its residents requirement are not well understood.

Interests & Experiences

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a student, I am interested in how the town's long term plans can be leveraged to encourage active transportation and transit connectivity, provide affordable housing for students and other residents, and protect existing residents from displacement.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have experience working in the transportation planning field at the federal level. As a federal employee, I had the opportunity to engage with projects from a variety of cities and states across the U.S. I also had the opportunity to observe how agencies across jurisdictions collaborate to implement and plan projects, which I believe would be valuable experience to bring to the Planning Commission. Outside work experience, I have an interest in planning, design, and architecture which I have pursued academically. My coursework has given me an overview of the community engagement and design strategies that are at the forefront of current planning discourse.

You may upload a supporting document (e.g., CV or resume). Please be advised that any information submitted becomes a public record and may be searchable online.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to State Statute 106A-388(e)(2), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.”

Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member should ask the advisory board or commission to be recused from voting. The advisory board or commission should then vote on the question on whether or not to excuse the member making the request. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.
