- Alice Armstrong, Reappointment, Orange County Resident
- Leah Boucher, Appointment, Town Resident

SPECIAL REQUEST(s): To reappoint Alice Armstrong as the Orange County Resident to the Parks, Greenways, and Recreation Commission.

BACKGROUND:

Leah Boucher is a native of Chapel Hill and an avid user of the Town's Parks and Greenways. She is also a Consumer Insights professional, which involves listening to the needs of people from various backgrounds. Leah believes in the importance of listening to diverse populations and wants to use this skill as a commission member to bring different perspectives and needs to the Town. Leah led the Rahkis Elementary School playground expansion, which included raising $65,000 in funds to help pay for the new equipment.

Tyler Steelman is a graduate student at UNC-Chapel Hill and was a seasonal employee for his hometown's Parks and Recreation Department for youth recreation and sports. He has training in GIS methods and practices and is interested in using his knowledge to help the Town with care and maintenance of our cemeteries.

Alice Armstrong is a retired law professor who lives in Orange County. Alice uses the Town's parks and greenways. She has been an active committee member and regularly informs the Commission of parks, greenways, and recreation development and activities within the County.

The Commission was also particularly pleased to meet five of the eight applicants to serve on the Commission and was impressed by each of the applicant's interests and perspectives they offer. The Commission appreciates the opportunity to review and make a recommendation regarding applications to serve on the Commission.

Note: Communications and Public Affairs notes that the Parks, Greenways and Recreation Commission reviewed the following applications: Alice Armstrong, Leah Boucher, Donna Dodson, Andra Ghent, Amy Rose, Macie Rouse, Alexandra Sheaves, Tyler Steelman, and Wendy Whitener.
