Re-Imagining Community Safety Task Force Update.

Staff:

Celisa Lehew, Chief of Police
Shenekia Weeks, DEI Officer

Department:

Police Department
Manager's Office

PURPOSE: That Council receives information regarding implementing recommendations of the Re-Imagining Community Safety (RICS) Task Force.

OVERVIEW

On September 9, 2020, Council established the Task Force with a mission to bring forth concrete, actionable recommendations that will increase public safety, eliminate structural inequities in Town public safety systems, and enable all in the community to thrive. On June 23, 2021, the Task Force presented 28 recommendations and 31 action items to Council organized into three broad categories of prevention, crisis, and post-crisis.

Since the last update to Council in September 2021, several key recommendations of the Task Force have been implemented, and are described in this report
