Affirm Chapel Hill-Carrboro City School's Nomination of Council Member Parker to Serve on Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools' Business Advisory Council.

Overview: Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools (CHCCS) is now required by General Statute to create a business advisory council to focus on workforce development and business in the community. The statutes indicates that Council membership will include representatives from manufacturing, public service agencies, a local apprenticeship coalition and economic and workforce development. The Board of Education will make the initial appointments for terms beginning January 1, 2018.

Recommendation(s):

That the Council affirm CHCCS' nomination of Town of Chapel Hill Council Member Michael Parker to serve on the Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools' Business Advisory Council.

Key Issues:

- CHCCS used a committee to nominate members, and Michael Parker was nominated.
- Council may choose to nominate a different Council Member should they so choose.
