Overview: The 1995 Annexation Boundary Agreement between the Towns of Chapel Hill and Carrboro has lapsed and is proposed to be renewed without any changes.

Recommendation(s):

That the Council adopt a resolution to schedule a hearing to consider the annexation boundary agreement on April 19, 2023.

Background:

As part of the Joint Planning Agreement between the Towns of Chapel Hill and Carrboro and Orange County, the Towns agreed upon an annexation boundary. The agreement was approved in 1995 and the 20-year term has lapsed.

We anticipate the Town of Carrboro conducting a parallel review of the agreement with a tentative hearing date of April 18, 2023.
