Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Little or No Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I am a life-long resident of Chapel Hill now attending the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill as a double major in economics and public policy with a minor in environmental science. I have seen and experienced first-hand the ways that Chapel Hill has grown and evolved in the past 15 years, from new buildings, the redesign of the public library, the closing of small businesses on Franklin Street, and more. In this way, I am deeply connected with both the full-time residents of Chapel Hill and the ever-changing university community. I know what these groups need from our town and how best to achieve those goals. Further, I am a young resident of Chapel Hill that has been through the CHCCS system, worked with local agencies, and now attend UNC-CH. I am deeply immersed in my community and have a passion for helping my community and the people in it grow and thrive. Seeing my middle-school teachers struggle to live in the communities they serve first enlightened me to the issue of affordability in Chapel Hill. As I have grown older, I have examined this issue through academic research, and I am a strong advocate for mixed-use development and rezoning to accommodate more affordable housing for all the people who work at the university and the institutions that help make Chapel Hill such a wonderful place. My relationships with residents and knowledge of my community are what allows me to understand what solutions will and won't work in Chapel Hill, and I am excited to bring this knowledge to the Board and Commission.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have done extensive policy research on urban planning, education, and affordability issues in the Town of Chapel Hill. I know that the developments on Ephesus Church Road, Estes Drive, and in University Place fail to address the root issue of housing affordability for families and local employees. I have examined ways to help these citizens and builders through rezoning, re-examining historic districts, and construction regulations and tax credits. I am currently working in the House of Representatives for Congressman Cohen on federal policy issues that plague communities like Chapel Hill such as housing, economic growth, and sustainability. I have also worked with a local nonprofit, Grow Your World, since September of 2022. I work with underprivileged K-12 students in CHCCS schools to provide them with one-on-one tutoring and mentorship through a variety of programs. As a member of the Planning Commission and Board of Adjustment, I will bring relevant insights from a federal policy and grassroots perspective. I am extremely passionate about land-use issues and ensuring that the decisions made by the Commission and Board are reflective of my community's values and interests.

Question applies to Board of Adjustment

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I have academic experience in city planning, zoning, and housing affordability. Through my Environmental Justice & Policy academic seminar, I learned about the deep intersection that these issues have with sustainability and ways to effectively target all of these issue areas to benefit citizens. I have done research with professorial oversight on related issues with a specific focus on the town of Chapel Hill as it relates to such issues. One project I worked on addressed the challenges faced by no-car households in the Triangle area, highlighting the limited availability of effective public transportation and the resulting difficulties in accessing grocery stores, workplaces, and other essential destinations I hope to use the knowledge I have to assist on the Board of Adjustment and learn from fellow members to continue the important work for our local community.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I have extensive experience in environment, housing, and transportation fields. I am currently studying environmental science and have completed multiple academic research projects on sustainability in Chapel Hill, and how we can improve on this front. One project I worked on addressed the challenges faced by no-car households in the Triangle area, highlighting the limited availability of effective public transportation and the resulting difficulties in accessing grocery stores, workplaces, and other essential destinations. I have also conducted policy research and written relevant memos on both housing affordability and transportation access. Further, I am currently working for Congressman Cohen of Memphis. I work closely with our Senior Policy Advisor on environmental issues and relevant legislation. These issues are heavily intertwined with housing and transportation issues. As I work on federal legislation and policy, I have gained important insight on how best to improve these issues at the local level.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Non-Chapel Hill Board Experience

Amanda L Frisard

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

My perspective related to the CH downtown partnership and planning board comes on a multitude of levels. First, I was born in North Carolina and previously lived in Chapel Hill from 1983-1986 while my mom was in grad school at UNC. I now live in CH with my family more that 35 years later so I can share the growth I see and also that needs to continue for the town to thrive. I also come downtown at least weekly to eat or shop at a business so I see first hand what is working and what is missing. My perspective related to the planning board is similar in regards to what does Chapel Hill need to maintain revenue for the future in this AI driven world we are entering. Planning for future home and business development is necessary to make sure the town has money to run and provide services to its citizens.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

When I live in a town/city, I like to be informed and involved. This is similar to what I feel Chapel Hill offers its citizens. I have served on previous boards in towns I lived in ie Metrolina Native American Association-Charlotte, NC and Mayor's Committee for People with Disabilities-Chandler, AZ and now serve as a board member on the United Tribes of NC non-profit as well as the NC Museum of History-American Indian advisory council. In addition, with a bachelor's degree in Political Science/Business Administration I also have a working knowledge of how government works and its running facility.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I have an associates degree in interior decorating that I received in 2004 with an unique eye for design and although not currently working in the field I consult with family and friends

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Chapel Hill Board Experience

I have a masters' degree in City and Regional Planning from UNC Chapel Hill and have worked as a professional planner since 2013. In my current job, which is located in Chapel Hill I have held since July 2019, I work with local governments throughout the country to help them plan their communities and make comprehensive revisions to their development codes. That has proven very helpful during my service on the Board of Adjustment, and I think will be a very helpful perspective on the Planning Commission, especially as the town undertakes its own development code rewrite. In addition, my primary means of transportation is my electric bike and I perform most of my regular errands such as grocery shopping via bike. Relying on my bike for transportation gives me a good perspective into how and where Chapel Hill succeeds in making it easy to live, work, and play without relying on a car, as well as where the Town falls short. In light of the growing threat of climate change and our desire to increase the Town's commercial tax base, relieving residents of some of the Town's relatively high property tax burden, I think my perspective using very low-carbon means of transportation would be useful as the town considers its future development patterns.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

As discussed above, I am a professional planner. I have a law degree (I am not admitted to practice in the North Carolina), which helps me understand the legal limitations around the types of zoning regulations that the Town can implement and enforce, as well as the role of the Board of Adjustment in adjudicating appeals from decisions of the Planning Commission and the Historic District Commission, among others, and the Planning Commission's role as a decision-making body and as an advisory body. In addition, I have served as chair of the Board of Adjustment where adherence to procedure is critical, due to the quasi-judicial nature of our proceedings, and have become comfortable with running a meeting and using Robert's Rules of Order.

Question applies to Board of Adjustment

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning or related fields? If yes, please explain.

Yes. As discussed above, I have a master's degree in City and Regional Planning from UNC and have worked as a professional planner for nearly ten years, and an important part of my current job is drafting zoning ordinances, including procedures for boards of adjustment and drafting the standards that apply to the boards' decisionmaking. I have served as chair of the Board of Adjustment since last summer and am familiar with the rules of adjudicating meetings, both in my role as chair and from my professional work.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

Yes. As discussed above, I have a master's degree in City and Regional Planning from UNC and have worked as a professional planner for nearly ten years. For five years I worked at GoTriangle on various regional transit-related transportation planning projects, and since that time I have worked for a local private consulting forms on planning projects throughout the southeast and the nation, primarily involving updates to zoning and subdivision ordinances.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

I've provided my resume as an essay. It covers

- My education, work history and expertise
- My volunteer experience
- Why I am applying to join the Planning Commission.
- Pertinent reading

Work and expertise

I retired in 2018. Here is a brief synopsis of my education and experience:

- BA, History, University of Georgia Summa Cum Laude
- Master of Public Affairs, School of Public and International Affairs, Princeton University

My training at Princeton included economics, statistics, and policy analysis.

My work roles included operations analyst, software programmer, system planner, project manager, and manager. As a manager, I was responsible for a software development budget in excess of $20M annually. I was a certified Project Management Professional and a Cisco Certified Network Associate.

Throughout my career, I've maintained an interest in policy, with my particular focus changing over time. Most recently, it has been how best to respond to the climate crisis -- what the Sierra Club calls "climate justice". When I become interested in an area of policy, I try to read as deeply and as broadly as possible. At the end of this essay, I've listed the books, plans, and reports that I've read over the last three years. I'm continuing to work my way through the immense amount of material that Chapel Hill publishes. As someone who loves to learn and who does policy analysis for a hobby, I'm having a lot of fun.

Volunteer experience

I serve as the Vice-President of the Judea Reform Congregation's Cemetery Board, which operates the synagogue's cemetery. I've previously served in executive leadership positions on Judea Reform's Board and as a Trustee. Most recently, I chaired the synagogue's Building and Grounds Committee for four years. Throughout the COVID shut-down period and after, I was co-chair of the small group that set our COVID policy.

In other areas of volunteering:

- I rebuilt Meals on Wheels of Orange County, NC's website in 2018 and have maintained it since that time.
- I am a regular blood donor.
- I am active on Chapel Hill CONNECT (now Resident Reporter) especially with respect to traffic safety issues for bicyclists.
- I contribute in public policy fora and surveys, e.g., on the NS BSRT station design, the Town's Connected Roads Plan, Orange County's Land Use Plan 2050, and the DCHC-MPO transportation priorities survey.
- I am a member of the League of American Bicyclists and BikeWalkNC

Why apply to the Planning Commission?

I have had a great deal of good fortune in my life. I retired in part so that I could work to give back for all that I've received. I want to leave a better world to my children and grandchildren -- and to their grandchildren.

In the spirit of thinking globally and acting locally, I've become deeply interested in what Chapel Hill is doing to reshape itself. I believe that the Town is setting a direction that will enable it to make a strong response to the challenges that are upon us to deal with climate change, expand our tax base, construct sufficient affordable housing, and create a connected, healthy, and safe community. I hope that what we do here can serve as a model for others striving to meet these same demands on our society.

I am applying to be appointed to the Planning Commission because it has a key role in assisting the council to achieve the town's comprehensive plan. Its assignment to analyze, evaluate and recommend town policies, ordinances and planning standards that manage land use fit well with my skills and interests. I attended several Planning Commission meetings so I can better understand the issues that come before it and how it works to address them. I believe I can bring my energy and insight to the table and make a contribution to our town at this critical time. I hope you will agree with me and appoint me to the Commission.

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Little or No Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a resident in a quiet residential neighborhood very close to campus, parks, businesses, recently flooded areas, and public transportation, I have a keen interest in understanding/perspective on how the interplay among these interests is maintained as the Town grows and changes. As with many things, the devil is in the details when it comes to how to promote growth and change without negatively impacting some existing amenities.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I have volunteered with the Dispute Settlement Center in Orange County for several years and am committed to ensuring all perspectives are heard and considered. Public trust in large institutions, notably government, is at historic lows, and it will be important to hear from all perspectives to improve the public's trust in the process of governing.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

I worked for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for 18 years, and my work focused on evaluating and analyzing the impacts of different policy options.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a 9-year veteran of the United States Navy and a new resident to Chapel Hill I feel that I could bring a vision of stability and an understanding free of bias mindset to any position that I would be appointed to. I could use my experience as a leader to help guide observations or map out a path to understanding any situation given to me. I also feel like my experience in roles of being a member of the workforce would be of great value. I am a person who values work ethic and values and I show that through my dedication to service.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

My interest in this interest in this positions stems from my pursuit to be a member of the public service. I am currently pursuing an undergraduate degree at the University of North Carolina @ Chapel Hill currently and this opportunity would provide me with a chance to see the work that I plan to do in my future career. I would bring my skills as an attentive worker, a professional member to any team, and a team leader if necessary.

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Little or No Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I bring a very real, day-to-day perspective from working directly with buyers and sellers across the Triangle. I'm constantly seeing how people are making decisions around housing- what they can afford, where they want to live, and how things like location, pricing, and neighborhood layout impact those choices. Because of that, I think I'm able to connect bigger-picture planning decisions to how they actually play out in real life for residents. I also come from a hospitality background, so I'm big on listening, communication, and working well with different personalities. I try to be thoughtful, easy to work with, and focused on finding solutions that make sense for everyone involved.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I'm a licensed real estate broker here in North Carolina with The Perry Group at Keller Williams, where I help clients buy and sell homes throughout the Triangle. That involves a lot of market analysis, negotiation, and guiding people through what can be a pretty complex process. Before real estate, I worked at The Carolina Inn where I led a team of about 20 people and handled high-level guest experiences. That really helped shape how I approach leadership, organization, and problem-solving. I'm also currently finishing my undergraduate degree at UNC Chapel Hill, which has been a great way to continue building my critical thinking skills and stay connected to the community.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

My main experience is in housing through my work in real estate. On a daily basis, I'm looking at market trends, property values, and how things like location, zoning, and development impact buyers and sellers. I also have a strong interest in how the Triangle is growing: especially around housing availability, walkability, and how development affects different parts of the community. Being at UNC right now has also kept me close to those conversations, both from an academic standpoint and just being involved in the area day-to-day. I'd say my experience is more practical than technical when it comes to planning, but I think that's valuable in helping connect policy decisions to what people are actually experiencing on the ground.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Little or No Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I have a focus on environmental sustainability, housing affordability, and transportation. All three are linked together, and decisions made now will have long term impacts. At the same time, businesses and entrepreneurs need clear and reliable rules to be able to plan and invest in our shared future. I attended Culbreth and Chapel Hill High School. I now live in a neighborhood that was being planned and built back then. People were agog at the scale of it and now it's a beloved part of our community. I want to help our community continue to grow so that current students can live here as adults, and to ensure that the growth is consistent with environmental sustainability and a wonderful quality of life.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

My doctorate is in environmental science and management with a focus on environmental and energy economics. I bring strong experience in cost benefit analysis and considering tradeoffs of social and environmental challenges.

Question applies to Board of Adjustment

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning or related fields? If yes, please explain.

My training and experience lie in environmental economics. This field emphasizes the role and importance of both government clarity and that rules sometimes don't fit exceptional circumstances.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

My training and experience lie in environmental economics. This field emphasizes that the private sector is an incredibly important tool for producing good social outcomes such as building a community that we can all love, but that government is the key to pointing the private sector in the right direction.

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Non-Chapel Hill Board Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I love living in Chapel Hill! And I am immensely grateful that as a federal retiree and parent of school-aged children, I was able to move here, where I spent my early childhood, with my hardworking husband and our immigrant family. At the same time, I know many newcomers and/or those whose labor ensure our comfort and wellbeing cannot afford to be our neighbors. Through my parish's support with rental assistance to an Afghan family, as well as other outreach work, and based on my review of ARPA grant applications after completing the 2022 Peoples Academy, I am aware of the great income disparity in our community and additional complicating factors including food insecurity that further widen the gap. With ongoing development, I would like to be a voice for more truly affordable and workforce housing in Chapel Hill. Though I am white, my husband and our children aged 8, 11, 14, and 20 are originally from Congo; so I would also bring their perspective (and experiences with school authorities and law enforcement) as recently arrived immigrants of color to any assignment.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

In my 23 years as a U.S. diplomat, I led large, small, and culturally diverse teams in seven countries and in Washington, DC. Prior to my Foreign Service career, I worked in local economic development in the State of Indiana, so I also understand the need to attract investment and create jobs. I speak Spanish and French fluently.

E. STROTHER MURRAY-NDINGA

Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Cell/WhatsApp: +1 (919) 338-9468

e.strother.murray@gmail.com

Executive Summary

Dynamic, culturally fluent connector with over two decades of public service representing the United States overseas in seven countries, primarily in Africa and Latin America. Proven mission leadership, program management, inter-office and inter-departmental collaboration, and demonstrated political and public affairs acumen. Adept at bringing out the best in diverse, multi-cultural, and physically dispersed teams to deliver tangible results within tight timeframes. Re-establishing Chapel Hill roots and seeking to contribute to mutual understanding in North Carolina while maintaining a global reach. Homeowner and parent of students in Chapel Hill Carrboro City Schools, committed to promoting access to quality education to the full diversity of community residents and ensuring housing options meet the needs of all who serve this town.

Professional Experience

U.S. Department of State, Foreign Service Officer, 1998-2021

Overseas Assignments:

Honduras: Deputy Director, Office of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement (INL), Embassy Tegucigalpa (2018-2021)

- Co-led one of the three most robust civilian security and judicial assistance operations in the Western Hemisphere, directing the performance of a team of 50+ managing approximately $40 million annually in security sector assistance programming including a wide range of anti-corruption, anti-gang, and law enforcement programs to protect the U.S. homeland by strengthening Honduran partner institutions.
- Converted COVID crisis to pandemic opportunity by investing in digital learning platforms and providing certification in virtual instruction to trusted trainers, allowing INL and its implementing partners to reach exponentially more and geographically more diverse justice sector actors.
- Collaborated with the Department of Homeland Security, Embassy colleagues, Honduran National Police, local elected officials, community partners, and retired professional U.S. sports envoys and coaches to conduct successful beach volleyball program for at-risk youth in the Bay Islands.

Democratic Republic of the Congo: Deputy Political Counselor, Embassy Kinshasa (2015-2018)

- Served stints of up to six weeks as Acting Deputy Chief of Mission, working closely with the Ambassador and Chargé to manage overall mission goals and resources, including 176 Americans and 564 Locally Employed (LE) Staff representing four agencies, with an annual operating budget of $24.5 million.
- Managed a large section with a reputation for outstanding reporting and analysis, supervising four Americans and three local hires. Founded and convened a donor coordination working group of like-minded diplomatic partners to strategize around electoral concerns.
- Led a team of colleagues as overall control officer for a sizable congressional delegation's successful 3-day visit to one of the world's most complicated diplomatic posts. Secured high-level engagements with DRC government counterparts and American parent groups resulting in increased visibility for the plight of adoptive families and breaking a logjam of exit permits for over 400 stalled adoption cases, allowing family reunification.

Republic of the Congo: Deputy Chief of Mission, Embassy Brazzaville (2013-2014)

- Responsible for the day-to-day management of embassy resources and personnel, a total of 220 U.S. and local staff, at a post with an operating budget of $8.5 million and programs valued at $15 million per year.
- Oversaw reactivation of Marine Security Guard (MSG) detachment 16 years after MSGs evacuated during Congo's civil war, doubling our workforce and positively impacting both morale and security. Leveraged celebratory occasion to strengthen bilateral partnership by bringing back a former Marine and including host nation officials.

Afghanistan: Human Rights Unit Chief, Political Section, Embassy Kabul (2011-2012)

- Served regularly as Acting Deputy Counselor of 15-member political section in a high-threat environment, managing and fostering the resilience of a team of American and Afghan professionals while overcoming the structural constraints of short assignments, inexperienced staff, and security restrictions on movement.
- Worked closely with inter-agency, foreign diplomatic partners to develop programming to promote democracy and good governance and civil society engagement. Escorted 32-member delegation of civil society leaders to international donor conference in Tokyo, where they made the case for increased investment in Afghan-led initiatives.

Spain: Political-Military Officer, Embassy Madrid (2007-2010)

- Led Post's team of senior U.S. military officers and Spanish counterparts in developing robust defense relationship, resulting in significant increase in Spanish deployment in Afghanistan. Coordinated with Ministry of Defense to host Afghan officials for public donor conference highlighting progress in Badghis Province.
- Identified a cohort of Spanish policy makers and influencers and accompanied them to Brussels for a U.S. NATO exchange program that bore policy fruit. Deployed as a Mission speaker to thinktanks and universities in Madrid, Mallorca, and Barcelona.

Madagascar: Assistant Public Affairs Officer, Embassy Antananarivo (2000-2003)

- Led large team responsible for media outreach and press training programs, overhaul of Mission website, and re-formation of Information Resource Center (IRC) following closure of traditional American library. Designed and implemented high-tech press center for journalists on the site of the Direct English Teaching Program (DETP).
- Deployed to the World Summit for Sustainable Development (WSSD), staffing press control rooms and acting as press officer for visiting head of U.S. delegation.

Mexico: Vice Consul, Consulate General Guadalajara (1999-2000)

- Adjudicated hundreds of non-immigrant visa cases daily during a period of unprecedented growth in applications. Mastered and applied U.S. regulations with compassion while providing superior customer service. Delivered anti-fraud messages in Spanish on local radio in cooperation with the branch PAO.

Washington, DC, Assignments:

Outreach Officer, Nigeria Policy & Operations Group (2014-2015)

Senior Democratic Republic of the Congo Desk Officer (2012-2013)

American Political Science Association (APSA) Congressional Fellow (2006-2007)

- Foreign policy advisor to Senator Bill Nelson (D-FL), then serving on Foreign Relations, Armed Services, and Intelligence Committees. Represented the Senator's Office in regular meetings with Cuban/Caribbean constituent groups, NGOs, inter-agency actors.

Country Officer for Paraguay and Uruguay (2004-2006)

Senior Watch Officer/Watch Officer (WO/SWO), Operations Center (2003-2004)

- Led teams to gather information, brief Department principals on breaking developments in foreign policy initiatives. Ensured Secretary of State Powell's smooth communications with foreign counterparts in context of multilateral diplomatic support for early

U.S. efforts in Iraq; political fall-out from Madrid train bombings; evacuation of Haitian President Aristide to the Central African Republic.

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I'm a graduate student studying transportation systems engineering at NC State University. My focus is on the integration of planning with multi modal transportation and improving integration between modes. I have also lived in Denmark twice in the past 6 years, experiencing and studying first hand the type of mixed use transit-oriented neighborhoods Chapel Hill is attempting to build. I'm also an active user of GoTriangle and Chapel Hill Transit, and understand a lot of the issues facing their operations and how improved planning can fix them. I have extensive knowledge of transportation systems around the world, including instances where innovating solutions have been used to solve similar issues to those facing Chapel Hill.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

Computer Science and Math degree from UNC Chapel Hill, Extensive network of connections in the local transportation and planning field. I have been studying transportation extensively for over a decade, and have extensive knowledge of the design of bus services, sidewalks, bike lanes, street networks, and rapid transit around the world and in the U.S. I have contacts at NCDOT and can work with them to help solve conflicts between NCDOT and the town's transportation goals.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

Working on a PhD in Transportation Systems Engineering at NC State.

Ethics Statement

ETHICS GUIDELINES FOR TOWN ADVISORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Members of advisory boards and commissions shall not vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public business. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if the outcome of the matter being considered is reasonably likely to have a direct, substantial, and readily identifiable financial impact on the member. In addition, members of the Historic District Commission and Board of Adjustment, when these boards are hearing cases, serve as quasi-judicial bodies. Pursuant to General Statute 160D-109(d), members of these boards “shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons’ constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible violations of due process include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter.” Any member who violates these Ethics Guidelines may be subject to removal from the board or commission. If the advisory board or commission member believes he/she has a conflict of interest then that member shall recuse himself/herself from voting on the matter. In cases where the individual member or the advisory board or commission establishes a conflict of interest, then the advisory board or commission member shall remove themselves from the voting area. Any advisory board or commission member may seek the counsel of the Town Attorney on questions regarding the interpretation of these ethics guidelines or other conflict of interest matters. The interpretation may include a recommendation on whether or not the advisory board or commission member should excuse himself/herself from voting. The advisory board or commission member may request the Town Attorney respond in writing.

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Little or No Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I bring a sustainability and data-driven perspective from my work as an environmental consultant. My experience gives me a practical understanding of how regulatory and environmental goals can be transformed into actionable policies. My technical background is complimented with my commitment to community engagement, seeking solutions of balanced growth, environmental stewardship, and equity for all Chapel Hill residents.

Mitchel Redmon

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I bring a background in environmental sciences, economics, and sustainability that can help Chapel Hill advance its climate resilience and development goals. Through my experience with environmental consulting, I translated regulatory and environmental data into actionable strategies for stakeholders. I value evidence-based policymaking, I will ensure residents of Chapel Hill have a voice and that equity is central to our collective decision making.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

My career has centered on sustainability and environmental management. I assisted organizations measure and reduce emissions, develop climate management systems, and comply with regulatory frameworks. This experience equips me to evaluate local policies on planning, transportation, housing, and development from a climate resilience perspective.

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Little or No Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

I have truly loved every city I've lived in and believe in the importance of getting involved in my community. I grew up in a historic neighborhood in Jacksonville, Florida that is still close to my heart. In college, I was a student ambassador to help incoming freshmen get acquainted with the great city of Boston. After serving a year with AmeriCorps in New York City, I then launched my career in one of the city's business improvement districts. While at Goldman Sachs, I had the incredible opportunity to help open the new GS London Headquarters. In 2022, I was fortunate enough to get to choose Chapel Hill as the city to raise our children so that we could be closer to family. We landed in a great neighborhood and have loved every minute since we've been here — and we plan on being here for a long time. I have the perspective of being a mom to young kids and imagining how as my kids grow up here, we can make this great town even greater. We are frequently out and about at parks, playgrounds, the library and sometimes we even brave restaurants (sitting still is hard). Even the dump is a favorite outing for my kids. My resume gives an overview of my professional experience and I've included more detail in the next question about my time working for a business improvement district. Mostly, I just want to get involved in some way and am happy to serve on an advisory board where my skills and experience would be most useful.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

One of my earliest jobs in New York was working for the Meatpacking Business Improvement District. In my role I got to work with 200+ neighborhood businesses to help attract both tourists and locals to the area. It was one of the most interesting jobs I've had because it allowed me to meet all sorts of business owners and think of creative ways to market their businesses. We planned events together, partnered with outside brands for special promotions and also tried to help business employees feel connected to their community. It was real, hyper-local marketing that felt genuine and fun. On the flip side, I also sat through countless community board meetings (e.g., every time a new bar applied for a liquor license) knew the names of our local police officers and also knew who to call to get a permit approved. I figured out how to operate in and feel connected to a little community inside one of the world's biggest cities. I can hold a meeting with a CEO but also know that the building's superintendent should be your best friend. I value the importance of good relationships and hearing different perspectives. I would be excited to bring some of this experience to an advisory board here in Chapel Hill, and I'm also eager to learn more about this town, its challenges and how to shape it for a better future.

Question applies to multiple boards

How do you describe your previous advisory board experience?

Chapel Hill Board Experience

What perspective(s) do you bring to the board(s), commission(s), committee(s) or task force(s) to which you are applying?

As a current member of the Chapel Hill Planning Commission, I've served a partial term beginning February 16, 2025, and I am applying to be reappointed for a full term. I've been a resident of Chapel Hill since 2007, with my first nine years spent as a renter—an experience that grounds my perspective on housing access and affordability. I bring both continuity and a deeply community-centered perspective to the commission. My professional background includes over 15 years of leadership in the nonprofit and public sectors, with a focus on equity, community engagement, and strategic development. I view planning through the lens of the social determinants of health, recognizing how land use decisions shape not only the built environment but also economic opportunity, public well-being, and community connection. I work to uplift the voices of residents who are often underrepresented in planning conversations, particularly renters, immigrant families, and communities of color. In my service on the Governor's Advisory Council on Hispanic/Latino Affairs, I lead statewide policy recommendations to expand language access and promote equitable access to government services. I've also led multi-sector collaborations, advised on inclusive development, and championed strategic planning efforts that center community voice.

Please provide a brief summary of any other relevant qualifications (skills, abilities, interests and/or experience) you bring.

I care deeply about helping Chapel Hill grow in a way that's thoughtful, inclusive, and responsive to the people who live here now—and those who will in the future. I bring experience in strategic planning, public engagement, and equity-centered leadership, along with a strong commitment to creating space for voices that aren't always heard in planning conversations. I've spent much of my career working across sectors to bring people together—from nonprofits and local government to artists and community members. My background in nonprofit management and community-based research has taught me how to listen carefully, understand different perspectives, and help groups navigate complex decisions. I'm also skilled at facilitating conversations that bridge language and cultural divides, which is essential in a community as diverse as ours. As someone active in the arts community and a leader in the local Latino community, I understand how culture and connection shape the way people experience this town. I'm especially interested in how planning affects our health, our environment, and the long-term resilience of our neighborhoods. At the heart of it, I want to help make sure our growth reflects the values and needs of the full Chapel Hill community.

Question applies to Planning Commission

Do you have special interest, experience, or education/training in city planning, design field, environment, housing, transportation or related fields? If yes, please explain.

In addition to the experienced described above and on my CV I have an acute interest art and cultural representation.
